DAILY GAZETTE.

From Major Winthrop's "John Brent."

The Story of Ham.

[Concluded.]

It was late as we walked along the streets, channels of fever and ague now frozen up for the winter. We saw a light through a shop door, and hammered stoutly for admission.

A clerk, long haired and frowny, opened ungraciously.

In the back shop were three men, also long haired and frowny, dealing cards and drinking a dark compost from tumblers.

"Port wine," whispered Brent. "Fine old London Dock Port is the favorite beverage, when the editor, and lawyer, the apothecary and the merchant meet to play euchre in Missouri."

We bought our files from the surly clerk and made for the calaboose. It was a stout log structure, with grated windows. At one of these, by the low moonlight, we saw a negro. It was cold and late. Nobody was near. We hailed the man.

"Ham."

"That's me, massa."

"You'se sold to Murker, to go south tomorrow. If you want to get free, catch."

Brent passed him up the files.

"Catch again," said Biddulph, and up went a went a rattling purse, England's subsidy.

Ham's white teeth and genteel manners appeared at once. He grinned and whispered thanks.

"Is that all that we can do?" asked the Baronet, as we walked off.

"Yes," said Brent, taking a nasal tone. "Ham's a pop'lar nigger, a handy nigger, one of yer rael ambishus sort. He kin cut har, fry a beefsteak, and play on the fiddle like a minstril. He kin shoe a mule, drive a team, do a little jiner work, and make stompers. Yes, Biddulph, trust him to gnaw himself free with that Connecticut rat tail."

"Ham against Japhet; I hope he'll win."

"Now," said Brent, "that we have put in action Christ's golden rule, Jefferson's declaration of independence, and all the wisdom's preamble to the constitution, we can sleep the sleep of well-doers, if we have two man-stealers—and one the brother of a murderer—only papered off from us."

[The following morning they resume their journey.]

The day, after the crisp frostiness of its beginning, was a belated day of Indian summer; mild as the golden mornings of that calm, luxurious time. We stopped to noon in a sunny spot of open pasture near a wide, muddy slough of the Missouri. This reservoir for the brewage of shades for Pikes had been refilled in some autumn rise of the river, and lay a great stagnant lake along the roadside, a mile or so long, two hundred yards broad.

We camped by a fallen cottonwood near the slough. The atmosphere was hopeful. We picnicked merrily, men and beasts. "Three gentlemen at once" over a chicken soon dissipated this and its trimmings. We lighted the tranquil calumet, and lounged, watching our horses at their corn.

Presently we began to fancy we heard, then to think we heard, at last to be sure we heard the baying of hounds through the mild, golden air.

"Tally ho," cried Biddulph, "what a day for a fox hunt! This haze will make the scent lie almost as well as the clouds."

"Music! music!" cried he again, springing up, as the sound, increasing, rose and fell along the peaceful air that lay on earth so lovingly.

"Music, if it were in merrie England, where the hunt are gentlemen. A cursed uproar here, where the hunt are men-stealers," said Brent.

"No," said Biddulph. "Those are fables of the old, barbarous days of the Maroons. I can't believe in dogs after men until I see it."

"I'm afraid it's our friend Ham they are after. This would be his line of escape."

At the word, a rustling in the bushes along the slough, and Ham burst through. He turned to run. We shouted. He knew us, and flung himself, lurid with terror, and panting with flight, on the ground at our feet—"the pop'lar nigger!"

"O, massa," he gasped. "Dey's gone sot the dogs on me. What'll I do?"

"Can you swim?" said I; for to me he was kneeling.

"No, massa; or I'de bin cross this yer sloo 'fore dis."

"Can you ride?"

"Reck'n I kin, massa."

A burst of baying from the hounds.

The black shook with terror.

I sprang to Fulano. 'Work for you, old boy!' said I to him, as I flung the saddle over his head.

'Take mine!' said my two friends at a breath.

'No; Fulano understands this business. Chase or flight, all one to him, so he baffles the brutes.'

Fulano neighed and beat the ground with eager hoofs as I buckled the bridle.

'Can't we show fight?' said Biddulph.

'There'll be a dozen on the hunt. It is one of the entertainments hereabouts. Besides, they would raise the posse on us. You forget we're in a slave state, an enemy's country.'

I led Fulano to the brink. He stood motionless, eyeing me, just as he eyed me in that terrible pause in Luggernel Alley.

'Here, Ham, up with you! Put across the slough. He swims like an alligator. Then make for the north star, and leave the horse for Mr. Richard Wade, at the Fremont House, Chicago. Treat him like a brother, Ham!'

'Lor' bress you, massa! I will dat.'

He vaulted up, 'like a sprightly nigger, one of the raal ambishus sort.'

The baying came nearer, nearer, ringing sweetly through the golden quiet of noon.

I launched Fulano with an urgent whisper. Two hundred yards to swim, and then all clear to freedom!

Fulano splashed in and took deep water magnificently.

What a sight it is to see a noble horse nobly breast the flood—to see his shoulders thrust aside the stream, his breast come quick, his eyes flash, his haunches lift, his wake widen after him!

And then—Act 2—how grand it is to see him paw and struggle up with might and main upon the farther bank—to see him rise all glossy and reeking, shake himself, and with a snort go galloping free and away! Aha! a sight to be seen!

We stood watching—Act 1. The fugitive was half way across. The baying came closer, closer on his trail.

Two-thirds across.

The baying ceased. The whole pack drew a long wail.

'They see him,' said Biddulph.

Almost across! A dozen more plunges, Fulano! A crowd of armed men on horseback dashed up to the bank two hundred yards above us. It was open where they halted. They could not see us among the bushes on the edge of the slough. One of them—it was Murker—sprang from his saddle. He pointed his rifle quick and steady. Horse and man, the fugitives were close to the bank and the thicket of safety.

Ping!

Almost over, as the rifle cracked, Ham had turned at the sound of his pursuers crashing through the bushes. Fulano swam high. He bore a proud head aloft, conscious of his brave duty. It was but a moment since he had dashed away and the long lines of his wake still rippled against the hither bank.

We heard the bullet sing. It missed the man as he turned. It struck Fulano.—Blood spirted from a great artery. He bounded forward. Ham caught to bushes on the bank, pulled himself ashore, and clutched for the bridle.

Poor Fulano! He flung his head up and plowed the surface with a great spasm. He screamed a death scream, like that terrible cry of anguish of his comrade martyred in the old heroic cause of Luggernel Alley.—We could see his agonized eye turned back in the socket, sending towards us a glance of farewell.

Noble horse again a savior. He yielded and sank slowly away into that base ditch.

But Ham, was he safe? He had disappeared in the thicket. His pursuers called the hounds, and galloped off to chase him round the slough.

Ham was safe. He got off to freedom. From his refuge he writes to me that he is "pop'lar;" that he has sot up a "Livery Institootion, and has a most beautiful black colt a growin' up for me." Ham was saved; but Fulano gone. Dead by Murker's rifle. The brother had strangely avenged his brother, trampled to death in the far away canon of the Rocky Mountains.

Mr. Partridge, the surgeon who made a professional visit to Garibaldi, charged and received £680 therefor.

THERE is nothing so much sought for by the public as a practical Sewing Machine, one that is Simple, Strong & Reliable.

One that will run for years without the annoyance of being out of repair; one that is noiseless and swift in motion; also that makes the stitch as you want it, alike on both sides of the fabric; such are the machines of the

FLORENCE SEWING MACHINE COMPANY.

Who take pleasure in placing their Machines before the public, and unhesitatingly say they are the best in the world, and openly and publicly challenge machines of any and all manufactures to do as large a range of work as can easily be done on one of these machines. They make and have all the advantage of a reversible feed motion, which carries the work either way, which, together with making all the four stitches, can be done whilst the machine is in motion; the saving of time in stopping to change the length of stitch, is obviated by this machine.

FOUR DIFFERENT STITCHES,

Any correspondence regarding our Machines will be promptly answered. Enclose a Letter stamp and we will send circular and sample of work by return mail.

RICE'S TEMPLE of ART.

I HAVE fitted up a saloon in good style, upon the first floor, with a superior sky light, on Main street, Janesville, one door south of the American House, where I am prepared to furnish the citizens of Janesville and vicinity with unequaled by any ever produced in this city. If you want a picture of yourself or friends got up in the latest style, call—satisfaction warranted. With nearly seventeen years experience in the various branches of the art, I am enabled to produce the

FINEST PICTURES!!

Brilliant and soft in tone, with all the middle tints pure white and black.

P. S.—Instructions given in the various branches, with the instrument or the brush. Views of Houses, Carriages, Machines and Residences, either in the city or country, Engine Companies or Military Companies taken on short notice, or pictures of deceased friends or invalids taken at their residences. E. B. RICE.

If of the human face Divine,
You want a picture very fine,
The Ambrotypes that Rice will take,
Are quicker than the dice you shake.
Gentlemen and ladies of the town,
With faces fair to look upon,
Should duplicates exchange before
Their eyes with lustre shine no more.

DAILY GAZETTE.

From Major Winthrop's "John Brent."

The Story of Ham.

[Concluded.]

It was late as we walked along the streets, channels of fever and ague now frozen up for the winter. We saw a light through a shop door, and hammered stoutly for admission.

A clerk, long haired and frowny, opened ungraciously.

In the back shop were three men, also long haired and frowny, dealing cards and drinking a dark compost from tumblers.

"Port wine," whispered Brent. "Fine old London Dock Port is the favorite beverage, when the editor, and lawyer, the apothecary and the merchant meet to play eucre in Missouri."

We bought our files from the surly clerk and made for the calaboose. It was a stout log structure, with grated windows. At one of these, by the low moonlight, we saw a negro. It was cold and late. Nobody was near. We hailed the man.

"Ham."

"That's me, massa."

"You'se sold to Murker, to go south to-morrow. If you want to get free, catch."

Brent tossed him up the files.

"Catch again," said Biddulph, and up went a went a rattling purse, England's subsidy.

Ham's white teeth and genteel manners appeared at once. He grinned and whispered thanks.

"Is that all that we can do?" asked the Baronet, as we walked off.

"Yes," said Brent, taking a nasal tone. "Ham's a pop'lar nigger, a handy nigger, one er yer rael ambishus sort. He kin cut har, fry a beefsteak, and play on the fiddle like a minstril. He kin shoe a mule, drive a team, do a little jiner work, and make stompers. Yes, Biddulph, trust him to gnaw himself free with that Connecticut rat tail."

"Ham against Japhet; I hope he'll win."

"Now," said Brent, "that we have put in action Christ's golden rule, Jefferson's declaration of independence, and all the wisdom's preamble to the constitution, we can sleep the sleep of well-doers, if we have two man-stealers—and one the brother of a murderer—only papered off from us."

[The following morning they resume their journey.]

The day, after the crisp frostiness of its beginning, was a belated day of Indian summer; mild as the golden mornings of that calm, luxurious time. We stopped to noon in a sunny spot of open pasture near a wide, muddy slough of the Missouri. This reservoir for the brewage of shades for Pikes had been refilled in some autumn rise of the river, and lay a great stagnant lake along the roadside, a mile or so long, two hundred yards broad.

We camped by a fallen cottonwood near the slough. The atmosphere was hopeful. We picnicked merrily, men and beasts. "Three gentlemen at once" over a chicken soon dissipated this and its trimmings. We lighted the tranquil calumet, and lounged, watching our horses at their corn.

Presently we began to fancy we heard, then to think we heard, at last to be sure we heard the baying of hounds through the mild, golden air.

"Tally-ho," cried Biddulph, "what a day for a fox hunt! This haze will make the scent lie almost as well as the clouds."

"Music! music!" cried he again, springing up, as the sound, increasing, rose and fell along the peaceful air that lay on earth so lovingly.

"Music, if it were in merrie England, where the hunt are gentlemen. A cursed uproar here, where the hunt are men-stealers," said Brent.

"No," said Biddulph. "Those are fables of the old, barbarous days of the Maroons. I can't believe in dogs after men until I see it."

"I'm afraid it's our friend Ham they are after. This would be his line of escape."

At the word, a rustling in the bushes along the slough, and Ham burst through. He turned to run. We shouted. He knew us, and flung himself, lurid with terror, and panting with flight, on the ground at our feet—"the pop'lar nigger!"

"O, massa," he gasped. "Dey's gone sot the dogs on me. What'll I do?"

"Can you swim?" said I; for to me he was kneeling.

"No, massa; or I'de bin cross this yer sloo 'fore dis."

"Can you ride?"

"Reck'n I kin, massa."

A burst of baying from the hounds.

The black shook with terror.

I sprang to Fulano. 'Work for you, old boy!' said I to him, as I flung the saddle over his head.

'Take mine!' said my two friends at a breath.

'No; Fulano understands this business. Chase or flight, all one to him, so he baffles the brutes.'

Fulano neighed and beat the ground with eager hoofs as I buckled the bridle.

'Can't we show fight?' said Biddulph.

'There'll be a dozen on the hunt. It is one of the entertainments hereabouts. Besides, they would raise the posse on us. You forget we're in a slave state, an enemy's country.'

I led Fulano to the brink. He stood motionless, eyeing me, just as he eyed me in that terrible pause in Luggernel Alley.

'Here, Ham, up with you! Put across the slough. He swims like an alligator. Then make for the north star, and leave the horse for Mr. Richard Wade, at the Fremont House, Chicago. Treat him like a brother, Ham!'

'Lor' bress you, massa! I will dat.'

He vaulted up, 'like a sprightly nigger, one of the raal ambishue sort.'

The baying came nearer, nearer, ringing sweetly through the golden quiet of noon.

I launched Fulano with an urgent whisper. Two hundred yards to swim, and then all clear to freedom!

Fulano splashed in and took deep water magnificently.

What a sight it is to see a noble horse nobly breast the flood—to see his shoulders thrust aside the stream, his breast come quick, his eyes flash, his haunches lift, his wake widen after him!

And then—Act 2—how grand it is to see him paw and struggle up with might and main upon the farther bank—too see him rise all glossy and reeking, shake himself, and with a snort go galloping free and away! Aha! a sight to be seen!

We stood watching—Act I. The fugitive was half way across. The baying came closer, closer on his trail.

Two-thirds across.

The baying ceased. The whole pack drew a long wail.

'They see him,' said Biddulph.

Almost across! A dozen more plunges, Fulano! A crowd of armed men on horseback dashed up to the bank two hundred yards above us. It was open where they halted. They could not see us among the bushes on the edge of the slough. One of them—it was Murker—sprang from his saddle. He pointed his rifle quick and steady. Horse and man, the fugitives were close to the bank and the thicket of safety.

Ping!

Almost over, as the rifle cracked, Ham had turned at the sound of his pursuers crashing through the bushes. Fulano swam high. He bore a proud head aloft, conscious of his brave duty. It was but a moment since he had dashed away and the long lines of his wake still rippled against the hither bank.

We heard the bullet sing. It missed the man as he turned. It struck Fulano.—Blood spirted from a great artery. He bounded forward. Ham caught to bushes on the bank, pulled himself ashore, and clutched for the bridle.

Poor Fulano! He flung his head up and plowed the surface with a great spasm. He screamed a death scream, like that terrible cry of anguish of his comrade martyred in the old heroic cause of Luggernel Alley.—We could see his agonized eye turned back in the socket, sending towards us a glance of farewell.

Noble horse again a savior. He yielded and sank slowly away into that base ditch.

But Ham, was he safe? He had disappeared in the thicket. His pursuers called the hounds, and galloped off to chase him round the slough.

Ham was safe. He got off to freedom. From his refuge he writes to me that he is "pop'lar;" that he has sot up a "Livery Instituotion, and has a most beautiful black colt a growin' up for me." Ham was saved; but Fulano gone. Dead by Murker's rifle. The brother had strangely avenged his brother, trampled to death in the far away canon of the Rocky Mountains.

Mr. Partridge, the surgeon who made a professional visit to Garibaldi, charged and received £680 therefor.

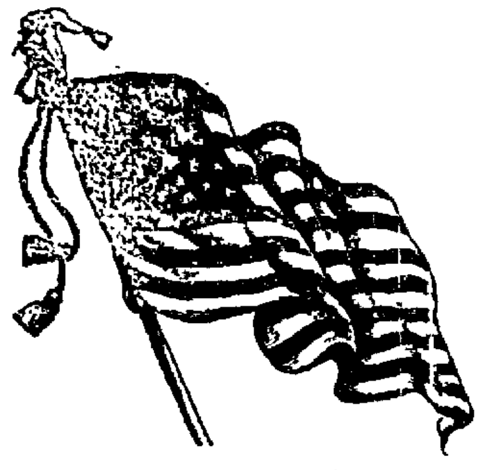
The Daily Gazette.

City of Janesville.

Tuesday Evening, Nov. 11, 1862.

Official Paper of the City.



Forever float that standard sheet—
Where breathes the foe but falls before us?
With Freedom's soil beneath our feet,
And Freedom's banner streaming o'er us!

The Legislature.

The Milwaukee Sentinel says that McDill is elected in the 27th senate district, and that Purdy, republican, is elected over Rodolph, in the the 30th district. This will give the republicans three majority in the senate. Lane and Priest, republicans, are also elected to the assembly from Vernon county. This settles the matter in regard to our legislature, both branches being republican.

More Removals.

The President has removed General Wool and appointed General Schenck to succeed him. Probably Wool's connection with the Harper's Ferry affair, and the recent arbitrary arrests of Union men in Baltimore are the causes of the step taken by the President.

General Fitz John Porter has been deprived of his command and ordered to Washington to stand trial upon charges preferred by General Pope, for misconduct at the battle of Bull Run. The impression generally prevailing is not favorable to Porter. Let Mr. Lincoln go ahead. He is on the right track at last. All incapable generals, as well as the half way men in civil offices should be made to "walk the plank."

General Burnside assumes Command.

The order of General Burnside in assuming command, is modest and in good taste. He makes no boasts of what he will do—no "driving the enemy to the wall." That style is played out with McClellan and Pope. As General Burnside has always been on good terms with General McClellan, it is alluded to in fitting terms in his first general order. The hopes of the nation are centered in him now, and we have great confidence that it will not be disappointed.

The Army is Loyal.

Those who predicted that the army would become disaffected upon the removal of McClellan have been mistaken. There may be some feeling, but the army is loyal to the core. There are no signs of a want of alacrity in obeying Gen. Burnside.—There never has been any danger in that respect, and such predictions are generally based upon a desire to have the prophecy fulfilled.

An Evil to be Corrected.

Our correspondents from Kentucky agree in stating that two brigadier generals, Gillmore and Burbridge, under whom Wisconsin regiments are serving in that state, have given them repeated orders to return fugitive slaves and to guard rebel property. We are glad to learn that the orders are not obeyed by Col. Utley, as they are clearly contrary to law, and we hope the other Wisconsin colonels will take the same stand. We supposed the disgraceful duty referred to had ceased to be required in our army, but it seems the practice is still continued in Kentucky. We hope such representations will be made to the President as will cause a correction of this evil.

Insult to the Intelligence of Volunteer Soldiers.—The Madison Patriot, in its anger at the character of the vote given by the volunteers from this state, deliberately insults and maligns them. It says:

"The whole thing of this army voting, is a most consummate humbug. So far as getting at the real political sentiments of the soldiers, it is impossible. After an absence of a year or more, they know nothing of what is going on at home."

Nothing could show the real feeling of the democratic leaders, all of whom opposed the law allowing soldiers to vote, than this declaration of the Patriot. These leaders have been sorely disappointed in their expectations of obtaining the political control of the state, based upon the fact, as well known to themselves as to anybody else, that the large preponderance of volunteers were republicans, and in their failure to disfranchise the defenders of their country resort to abuse and villification of the men from whom they attempted to withhold one of the most valuable rights of freemen.

Vote of the Regiments.—The Twenty-fourth regiment gave 145 majority for Brown.

The First gave 50 majority for Potter.

The Tenth and Twenty-first held no election.

The Tenth battery gave sixty-three for Potter and three for Brown.

The Twenty-second regiment gives Potter 233 majority, and swells the majorities of the republican assemblymen and the state senator in Racine county.

The Twenty-third regiment gives Sloan, republican, 159; Guppy, democrat, 228; Cobb, republican, 149; Bragg, Union, 9.

The Eleventh regiment gives Sloan about 30 majority.

Michigan.—The last report from Michigan is that Baldwin, democrat, is elected in the 5th congressional district. The 6th district is in doubt. The legislature will stand about thus: Senate, 17 republicans, 15 democrats; House, 58 republicans, 42 democrats.

From the Twelfth Battery.

Corinth, Nov. 7. 1862.

We are packing up all our tents and baggage, preparing to leave this place, to-day, for Holly Springs. I believe rumors are current here that a great battle has been fought at that place, between Hamilton and Price, and that the latter is defeated; as to the truth of the rumor I can not say, but the hotels and large buildings here are being fitted up for hospital purposes.

Wheeler S. Bowen.

Correspondence of the Daily Gazette.

From the Twenty-Third Regiment.

Camp near Lexington, Ky., Oct. 30, 1862.

Editors Gazette:—Our regiment is so often changed from one brigade to another, and from the command of one general to another, that we hardly know at any time what our position, or who our commander will be twenty-four hours hence. Since I wrote you last we have been separated from the brigade to which we were formerly attached, and are now brigaded with the 96th, 82d and 108th Ohio infantry, and 10th Kentucky cavalry. To Gen. Smith, who formerly commanded our brigade, has been assigned the command of a brigade at Lexington, and we are now under the command of Brig. Gen. Barbridge, a native Kentuckian. This last change is deeply regretted by all who know Gen. Smith, for he is a man who is in favor of a vigorous prosecution of the war, and believes in using the property of rebels, and even the "sacred nigger," when it can be made to subserve the purposes of government in putting down the rebellion. Gen. Burbridge has already achieved a disgraceful notoriety with the officers and men of his command.

Almost his first act in his official capacity was to issue an order that all negroes who remained within his lines after the expiration of six hours should be expelled from the camp forthwith. His whole care seems to be to protect the property of disloyal citizens from injury by the men under his command. Under date of Oct. 24th, he issued an order, the second article of which reads as follows:—"No animals, forage, or any other kind of property will be impressed, stolen, or by any kind of stratagem obtained from any man, woman or child, under penalty of having the extremity of the law executed upon such offenders. The general desires to command soldiers, not a disgraceful rabble, whose march creates terror to friends, and make enemies to ourselves and to our country's cause. When necessary to forage, orders will be issued from these headquarters." In the country through which we have passed, and where we are now stationed, treason is the rule and loyalty the exception; and yet no forage, not even wood or straw, may be taken from those who openly gave aid to Morgan's guerrilla band, which preceded us only about one week, stripping the Union men of all within their reach, and in some cases even burning their dwellings. We thought the time had come when treason was no longer protected by our armies, and when rebel property was deemed none too sacred to be used for the comfort of our soldiers. But there are still a few fogy officials who persist in trying to coax the south back into the Union; and we can only hope that we are not yet out of the latitude of changes, and that our next general may be a man whose solicitude for the welfare of traitors will also extend to the men of his command.

We got our tents about the first of the present month, and at 9 o'clock p. m. of the 7th we received orders to be ready to move early the next morning. We were ready accordingly, and at 7 o'clock were marching towards Covington. We were soon joined by the remainder of the brigade, and marched through Covington on the Lexington road; camped at sundown, after having marched fifteen miles. The day was excessively warm, and a scarcity of water greatly aggravated the sufferings of the men, yet they stood the march nobly, and but few fell out by the way. For four successive days we marched without interruption, and on the afternoon of the fourth day camped near Falmouth. After the first day the weather was cool, the roads were hard, dry, and in superb condition for marching, and the men were as little fatigued as if they had remained in camp. Falmouth is a small village, situated on the line of the Kentucky Central railroad, and in time of peace must have been a thriving little town. It had been visited by a detachment of Morgan's cavalry, which left about a week before our entrance. The home guards engaged them in a skirmish, killing eight, and wounding about twenty others.

They were not driven from the place until they had succeeded in burning the railroad bridge at Falmouth, also two others towards Lexington. We remained in camp here nearly two weeks, waiting for our provision train, which had much difficulty in reaching us on account of the unevenness of the roads. We left Falmouth early on the morning of Oct. 20th, and the same day marched to Cynthiana, a distance of twenty-three miles. This is by far the hardest marching we have done; the road was uneven, and marching was still more difficult by the lime stone on the hillsides and in the vallies. The Ohio regiment that was with us marched into camp with hardly half its men in the ranks. The 23d followed it in good order, singing "Old John Brown" as vociferously as if they had done only an ordinary day's work.

Cynthiana, too, has been ravaged by the enemy, and a railroad bridge burned. We camped here two days, when we were ordered to Paris. At Paris we remained in camp four days. The people here are generally loyal, and expressed much joy at the return of the Union army. From Paris we marched to this place, where we are camped four miles from Lexington. Orders have been received to march to-morrow morning, and I must bring this letter to a hasty close. It is rumored that we go to Nicholsville, the terminus of the Kentucky Central railroad.

The health of the regiment is good. We have lost but two men since we entered the service. Mr. Spears, a private in company F, died in the hospital at Covington on the 25th of October. He was a young man of more than ordinary ability, and was highly esteemed by all who knew him. The name of the other I have not been able to learn.

The boys were wild with joy over Lincoln's proclamation. Editors will wrangle over the merits and demerits of the proclamation, but nothing could give greater encouragement or more universal satisfaction to the men in the field than this bold step of the administration.

The Draft in Milwaukee.

The draft in Milwaukee has been postponed until further orders in consequence of errors supposed to exist in the amount of credit due the sixth and ninth wards for volunteers. The draft commissioner gave notice that he should deliver his papers over to Col. Lewis. We have no doubt the draft will be made in a few days, notwithstanding the bluster of the mob.

Col. O'Connor.—Capt. Ely informs us that the circumstances attending the death of Col. O'Connor are such as to utterly preclude the truth of the statement we extracted yesterday from the Dryden (N. Y.) News. After the fall of Col. O'C., our forces held the ground, and our own soldiers carried him to the hospital, where he died before our march from the battle-field. His dead body was left in possession of the enemy, in company with many of our wounded men.

The writer of the letter in the News, Mr. McGregor, is well known to one of the proprietors of this paper as a man of good character and intelligence. He probably made a mistake only as to the Union officer so barbarously treated.

☞ The election in the 24th regiment was held on the march from Bowling Green. The regiment started from camp in the morning, halted at four in the afternoon, held its election, and went on.

The Green Bay Advocate records the death of Daniel Whitney, esq., of that village. Mr. Whitney came to Wisconsin about the year 1819, and hence has been a resident over 40 years. At the time of his death he was said to be the earliest white American resident of Wisconsin. He was an extensive business man, and one of the largest property holders of that section.—The early residents of the state all know Daniel Whitney.

The Last of the Websters.—Colonel Fletcher Webster, who was killed in one of the recent battles near Centreville, was the oldest son of Daniel Webster. His younger son was in the army in Mexico, and died in the service there. His daughter, Mrs. Appleton, died some years ago—so that now there is none left of the blood of the "Websters."

A Railroad Argument.—The Territorial Enterprise says the best estimates put the amount of freight required for Washoe and its dependencies, during the eight winter months, at 28,000,000 pounds. At 4½ cents per pound, the freight of this would amount to $1,260,000. This is a forcible argument in favor of a railway across the mountains.

At Tiffin, Ohio, the other day, Van Amburg's trained elephant "Hannibal" broke open the wagon of a candy peddler who followed the show, and gobbled down six thousand gingerbread cakes, seventy pounds of assorted candy, and forty pounds of "French kisses."

The Alabama.—It has come out that the depredations of this vessel involve the rights of no less than three European governments—England, Italy and Portugal, and are likely to become a subject of special interest to all foreign nations.

Black Republicans in Cuba.—It is reported by passengers from Cuba that a large number of slaves from Texas and Louisiana are run across and sold there, and that they are demoralizing the Cuban slaves by by Lincoln songs.

Since the beginning of the war New York has raised an aggregate force of 219,059 men, of which 188,070 are infantry, 9,679 artillery, 9,642 cavalry, 855 engineers, 163 rocket battalion, and 19,650 recruits raised and being organized in the state.

M. Jomard, one of the last survivors of Napoleon's Egyptian Expedition, has just died suddenly in Paris, at the age of 85 years. He was a member of the French Institute, and conservator of the department of maps and plans at the Imperial Library.

Factors in New York now quote their coals at $7.50a$8 per ton; but the poor, who are obliged to procure it at retail by the pail full, pay from $10 to $12 per ton. They pay ten cents a pail for it at every grocery—three cents more than its price a short time ago.

☞ General Banks, in a few remarks, which he made from the platform of a railroad car in Boston, said that the approaching winter was not to be lost in inaction. The government was determined now to put forth its strength. Numerous expeditions were on foot that could not, if vigorously pressed, but be fatal to the revolted states.

Secessionists in Nevada Territory.—General James W. Nye has paid a visit to California for the purpose of obtaining a sufficient military force to preserve order in Nevada, of which he is governor. Large numbers of secessionists had left California for that territory, and apprehensions existed of difficulty with them.

A surgeon of one of the New England States, who is in the army, states that practice in surgery by the numerous incapables in the army does not improve them. The practice of amputating is much too common. A case is stated where there were in the hands of surgeons some twentyfour patients, who were badly wounded in the thigh. The surgical direction was that nothing but amputation would save them. Accordingly the knife was applied in six cases, and as death ensued in each case, it was thought useless to try it upon the remainder. They, however, all got well.

Encouraging.—The Milwaukee News has the following item of encouraging election news:

The Second District.—Sloan has a majority over Col. Guppy, on the home vote, of about one thousand. It is barely possible that the army vote will elect the Colonel

BY TELEGRAPH.

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE,
Office in Union Passenger Depot.

Last Night's Report.

Milwaukee, Nov. 10.

The draft in this state commenced today in some localities, and passed off quietly and in order. In Ozaukee county the lists were seized by a mob, destroyed, and the canvasser severely handled, and fled to this city.

In Milwaukee city there were strong indications of trouble, complaints being made that injustice had been done to some of the wards in not giving proper credit to volunteers. A crowd of the 9th warders assembled and marched through the city to the number of three or four hundred in procession. The result of the matter was, the draft was postponed for the present.

Fortress Monroe, Nov. 9.

The Richmond papers of Tuesday say that the abolitionists arrived in force from Washington, N. C., to a point on the Roanoke river, below Weldon, to cut off the rebel troops. The abolitionists were kept at bay while the confederates fell back to Spring Green, below Williamston, with the loss of two killed and thirty-one wounded. The federal loss was very heavy, including one entire cavalry company cut up and destroyed.

Washington, Nov. 10.

All statements alleging disaffection in the army in consequence of a change in the command of the army of the Potomac are pronounced, by those having the best means of knowing, to be without foundation.

Augusta, Ga., Nov. 6.

The Savannah Republican of this morning says the abolitionists were bombarding Trmpa Bay, Fla., on the 3d. Our forces were confident of their ability to hold out.

In Jackson, on the 5th inst., a cartridge factory exploded, killing every person employed in the works. Not less than thirty lives were lost.

Mobile, Nov. 6.

Advices from Holly Springs state that enemy has advanced to Lagrange, Tenn., and is advancing on this place. Colonel Jackson's cavalry have had a skirmish at Lamar.

Charleston, Nov. 6.

Gen. Beauregard has ordered non-combatants to leave Charleston with their movable property. He has also ordered all the slaves to be removed. This is done in order to avoid embarrassment and delay in case a sudden necessity should arise for the removal of the entire population.

Washington, Nov. 10.

The McClellan papers talk very mildly. The Herald says it shall support Burnside as it has done McClellan, and like the World calls for a change of cabinet. The Philadelphia Inquirer says political necessity required active movement and a man to make it. The Tribune praises God. The Times is satisfied.

Private dispatches state that there was no excitement in New York, and no effect produced on stocks.

Sickles sent in forty prisoners to-day.

The 16th Virginia, 800 strong, mustered in to-day.

Indianopolis, Nov. 10.

The president has not yet accepted the declination of Gen. Morris, and it is now thought that he will be assigned a separate command.

The removal of McClellan from the command of the Potomac army, is well received here by the friends of a vigorous prosecution of the war. The appointment of Burnside as his successor is particularly gratifying. Indiana believes in Burnside.

New York, Nov. 10.

The recent reported challenge of Cassius M. Clay to D. C. Birdsall, proves a hoax.

The Vanderbilt goes to sea to-night in search of the Alabama.

The following are extracts from the Richmond papers:

The Richmond Whig of Nov. 8th, in speaking of the recent northern elections, says they show plainly that the tide sets all one way, and that against Abraham Lincoln and his rampant war party. If the electioneering assertions and appeals of his party could be credited, this success of the democrats is about equal to a declaration of peace.

Washington, Nov. 10.

Special to Chicago Times.—Authentic intelligence, direct from the extreme front to-night, reports all quiet. The army is rapidly receiving supplies. Cars run from here to Warrenton to-day.

Our forces hold the Rapprhannock bridge with increased force.

The enemy yesterday made a demonstration against our force at Waterloo, but retired rapidly on the appearance of our infantry.

Pleasanton has taken 300 prisoners during his pursuit of the enemy.

There is no doubt whatever of the escape of Jackson to the east side of the Blue Ridge, and his junction with Longstreet, either at Culpepper or south of it. His rear guard passed Chester Gap on Thursday, the only gap which our forces did not reach in time to hold and prevent it.

There is now no rebel force in the Shenandoah valley, and the rebel army is united and in front of us on the Rapidan river.

All our rear approaches continue well guarded, and communication is perfect.

Washington, Nov. 10.

Special to Chicago Times.—The removal of Gen. McClellan continues to be the theme of the day. The publication of Gen. Halleck's letter confirms previous intimations that he has favored the change made in the commanding general for some time. The official order is made public to-day, and is dated Nov. 5th, just after election, and reads that the removal is made by direction of the president, and that General Burnside be placed in full command.

Direct arrivals from Warrenton state that, while the change is somewhat regretted, there is no demonstration of any kind. In fact, correspondents from there say that the army seemed to be prepared for it, owing to the almost daily rumors in the newspapers to the same effect. Gen. Burnside has quietly assumed command, and has stated that the army will continue its forward movement with as much vigor as is possible.

To-Day's Report.

[Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.]

MORNING DISPATCHES.

Headquarters Army of the Potomac,
November 10.

The following order was issued by Gen. Burnside on taking command of the army, in accordance with general order 182 issued by the president of the United States:

I hereby assume command of the army of the Potomac. Patriotism and the exercise of my every energy in the direction of this army, aided by the full and hearty cooperation of its officers and men, will, I hope, under the blessing of God, insure it success. Having been a sharer of the privations, and and a witness of the bravery of the old army of the Potomac in the Maryland campaign, and fully identified with them in their feeling of respect and esteem for Gen. McClellan, entertained through a long and most friendly association with him, I feel that it is not as a stranger that I assume command. To the 9th army corps so long and intimately associated with me, I need say nothing; our histories are identical. With diffidence for myself, but with a proud confidence in the unswerving loyalty and determination of the gallant army now entrusted to my care, I accept the control with the steadfast assurance that the just cause must prevail.

Signed, A. E. BURNSIDE,
Maj. Gen. Com'd'g.

Washington, Nov. 10.

Maj. Gen. Hooker has been assigned to the command of the army corps heretofore commanded by Gen. Fitz John Porter, who has been ordered to Washington to stand his trial upon the charges preferred against him by Gen. Pope for misconduct at the battle of Bull Run.

Special to Tribune.—Gen. Schenck has been designated as the successor of Major General Wool, and will probably be well enough to leave for his post within a day or two.

A private letter from New Orleans says: Gen. Butler has recently taken possession of two large plantations near that city, and has transferred a large number of loyal blacks to them for active service. The number of fugitive blacks in the department of the Gulf is increasing at a rapid rate, but by employing them in this way, says the writer, paying them small wages, and charging them for their clothing, the government will be fully reimbursed for the expense they may have been to.

Norman Wiard, who superintended the fitting out of the Burnside expedition, is doing the same for the Banks' expedition. He leaves for New York to-morrow.

Maj. Don Piatt has been appointed judge advocate of the court of inquiry about to assemble at Cincinnati to examine the case of Gen. Buell.

One of those brilliant affairs which shed lustre upon our volunteer cavalry, occurred Sunday morning, at Fredericksburg. Capt. E. Dalman, of Gen. Sigel's staff, with 60 of the 1st Indiana and a small detachment of the 6th Ohio cavalry, dashed into Fredericksburg early in the morning, where they found eight companies of Virginia cavalry. Without giving the enemy time to form, Capt. D. pounced upon them with sixty of his men, when a desperate hand to hand fight ensued, lasting for three hours, when the rebels were routed. Capt. Dalman lost only one killed and three missing. Our men returned safely, on Sunday night, bringing thirty-nine prisoners with their horses and accoutrements, and their wagons loaded with army cloth.

Heavy firing was heard on Sunday at Sigel's headquarters, in the direction of the Rappahannock, which led to the belief that Mason and Stuart were at it again. At night there was a rumor that Pleasanton had driven the rebels off.

Special to Herald.—I have news from Richmond up to the 6th. Lee arrived there about two weeks ago, and has been there ever since. He has assumed his position as general commander-in-chief, and acts as military adviser to the war department. Gen. Joe Johnston succeeds Lee to the active command of the rebel armies north of Richmond, and now has his headquarters at Culpepper. Stonewall Jackson's corps has been increased to 50,000 men. The advance of the army of the Potomac was known in Richmond, and the situation well understood. The rebel plan of operations was said to be to mass their forces on the Rappahannock, and then fight the greatest battle of the war.

The New Merrimac is completed and has been below Fort Darling for several days, with steam up and her full compliment and crew aboard. She is ready for a fight, and may be expected at the mouth of James river at any moment. She passed the obstructions in James river coming down, but owing to the peculiar nature it is impossible for her to get back to Richmond. If worsted in an encounter with our navy she can only seek protection under the guns of Fort Darling. Officers in the rebel service have been detached by the Richmond war department to carry on a contraband trade for their government between Baltimore and Richmond; 1,500 pounds of quinine, 100 pounds of fulminating powder, 2,000,000 percussion caps lately ran the blockade of the Potomac in possession of some of these parties.

Washington, Nov. 10.

Proposals for about thirteen millions of 10,000 bonds, in exchange for legal tender notes, will be opened on Monday, the 17th instant, at the treasury department, at noon, at which time they will be received. The bonds offered are those not yet disposed of. They are of the date of October 1st, 1861. The interest will run from the date of deposit, unless successful bidders prefer to pay accrued interest from Oct. 1st, 1861, on current coupons, in coin, to be reimbursed at its maturity. Bidders must deposit with some assistant treasurer 18 per cent of the amount offered, and forward with their bids the certificate of such deposit.

AFTERNOON DISPATCHES.

We have no report up to the time of going to press.

The Draft in Ozaukee.—We learn that the draft commissioner had a decidedly unpleasant experience of it in his attempts to perform his duty in the inhospitable latitude of Ozaukee county. Had his difficulties presented themselves in the ordinary and expected form, he could have got along with them. But they did not. The women were the matter. The men looked on complacently and willingly. Apparently they had no objections to going. But the women had no notion whatever of letting them go; and to prevent such a possibility, they made a dead set on the commissioner with clubs; broke his head and his draft boxes at the same time, and brought all proceedings to a summary close. The commissioner telegraphed to Madison for protection against these Amazons.—Mil. Sentinel.

Boston Boot and Shoe Market.—There is no abatement in the call for boots and shoes; dealers and manufacturers are full of orders, and for the first time for eight years we see the demand for nearly every kind of boots and shoes larger than the supply. Most of the manufacturers are making good profits on their goods, the only exceptions being those who in their hurry to get something to do took orders from dealers for goods before the late rise in stocks and work; consequently they are getting only about cost for their articles, while the individuals with whom they contracted are reaping large gains. The journeymen are making good wages, and the competition is such that in many towns there seems to be more than an even chance that their profits will be larger than those of their employers. Pegging and sewing machines are being pressed into service and nearly all of our large manufacturers are about adopting these improvements.

The call for army shoes confines active and good hemlock, half sole shoe, rivited in the sides and shank, will sell readily at about twenty cents a pair more than the same shoes would bring three months ago. There is less call for oak sewed shoes and parties here have lately renewed contracts at the deputy quartermaster's office in New York, at from five to eight cents a pair below the prices at which they have been putting in goods. Hemlock stock has advanced until it now costs nearly as much as oak, and is hard to obtain at any price.—Boston Boot and Shoe Reporter, Oct. 31.

WARRANTEE DEEDS FOR SALE.

The Mutual Life Insurance Company
OF THE
STATE OF WISCONSIN
Presents advantages in all respects equal, and in some superior, to those of other companies doing business in the northwest. Its rates, its plan of operations, and its basis, are identical with the best companies in this country and Europe. Its age, and consequently its accumulations, are not equal to theirs in amount, but in proportion to the age of risks, and amount at risk, they will compare favorably with the most successful.
Its assets, which have resulted solely from their accumulations amount to $115,712.86, and its annual income, from policies now in force, over $85,000.
Its assets and business are constantly increasing. Its losses have been promptly paid. Its trustees are well known, honorable business men, and are as capable of managing an institution of this kind, as men in any other portion of the United States. The experience of the company thus far proves that we can have as reliable companies in the west as any where else, if we will, and self-interest certainly indicates that we should have them, and build up home interests in every practicable way. In the above respects, this company claims equality with its co-workers, and in the following superiority: It obtains the greater portion of its business in the healthiest portion of the United States, thus having the advantage of a less per centage of loss; it receives higher rates of interest on its investments, thus making more rapid accumulations—both very important items in Life Insurance; and its expenses have been less in proportion to its business than any other new company doing business in the United States.

A. W. KELLOGG, Secretary.
H. G. WILSON, General Agent.

PROCLAMATION.

ANNUAL THANKSGIVING.

To the People of Wisconsin:

Amidst the manifold vicissitudes and calamities that have befallen and surrounded us, threatening the life of our nation, and the lives of so many of its heroic and noble sons, it particularly becomes us to turn with grateful hearts to the Supreme Being for the many blessings we have enjoyed, and the afflictions we have been spared.

The horrors and devastations of war, so fiercely raging around us, have not touched the border of our state; excepting the brave men who have rallied around our country's flag in this time of peril, our citizens have been allowed to pursue their peaceful avocations; our harvest, though not as abundant as Providence sometimes has pleased to grant us, has yet well compensated the labor bestowed upon it, and well filled our houses and barns; the savage tribes upon our border settlements, so threatening at one time to our peace, have been quieted, and kept under surveillance.

The great cause of our nation, it is true, has not triumphed yet over its enemies, but neither has it yet failed; the enemy has been driven from the soil of the loyal states; our army has been reinforced by hundreds of thousands of brave, patriotic and noble men ready to do battle, and, if necessary to die for the integrity of the Union; our resources and energies are unimpaired; we have reason to be hopeful for the future, and therefore thankful for the past.

The loyalty, honor and patriotism of the state of Wisconsin have been nobly sustained by her brave sons upon every field of battle where they have been called upon to vindicate our national flag. The just pride which we feel in the bravery of our noble soldiers should fill our hearts with gratitude to Almighty God, who has sustained them in their hour of trial.

For these and other uncounted blessings which the infinite goodness of God has vouchsafed to us during the past year, we should thank Him from the depth of our hearts. And therefore, and in accordance with the time honored custom, I do hereby appoint THURSDAY, the 27th day of November, 1862, as a day of thanksgiving and rest, and recommend to the people of this state on that day to abstain from secular labor, and to assemble at their usual places of worship to show their grateful hearts to the beneficent Ruler of the Universe, and to pray for a speedy suppression of the rebellion, and for peace to our distracted country.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto subscribed my name and caused the Great Seal of State to be affixed, this 31st day of October, A. D. 1862.

[SEAL.]

EDWARD SALOMON, Governor.

Edward Ilsley, Secretary of State.

City of Janesville.

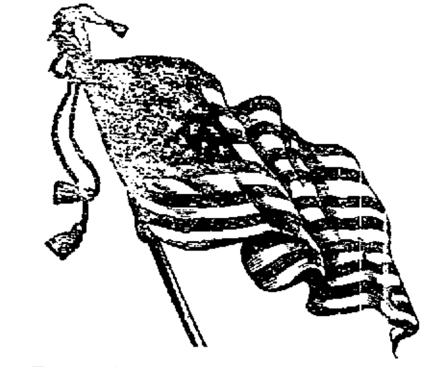
Official Paper of the City.



Forever float that standard sheet—
Where breathes the foe but falls before us?
With Freedom's soil beneath our feet,
And Freedom's banner streaming o'er us!

The Legislature.

The Milwaukee Sentinel says that McDill is elected in the 27th senate district, and that Purdy, republican, is elected over Rodolph, in the the 30th district. This will give the republicans three majority in the senate. Lane and Priest, republicans, are also elected to the assembly from Vernon county. This settles the matter in regard to our legislature, both branches being republican.

More Removals.

The President has removed General Wool and appointed General Schenck to succeed him. Probably Wool's connection with the Harper's Ferry affair, and the recent arbitrary arrests of Union men in Baltimore are the causes of the step taken by the President.

General Fitz John Porter has been deprived of his command and ordered to Washington to stand trial upon charges preferred by General Pope, for misconduct at the battle of Bull Run. The impression generally prevailing is not favorable to Porter. Let Mr. Lincoln go ahead. He is on the right track at last. All incapable generals, as well as the half way men in civil offices should be made to "walk the plank."

General Burnside assumes Command.

The order of General Burnside in assuming command, is modest and in good taste. He makes no boasts of what he will do—no "driving the enemy to the wall." That style is played out with McClellan and Pope. As General Burnside has always been on good terms with General McClellan, it is alluded to in fitting terms in his first general order. The hopes of the nation are centered in him now, and we have great confidence that it will not be disappointed.

The Army is Loyal.

Those who predicted that the army would become disaffected upon the removal of McClellan have been mistaken. There may be some feeling, but the army is loyal to the core. There are no signs of a want of alacrity in obeying Gen. Burnside.—There never has been any danger in that respect, and such predictions are generally based upon a desire to have the prophecy fulfilled.

An Evil to be Corrected.

Our correspondents from Kentucky agree in stating that two brigadier generals, Gillmore and Burbridge, under whom Wisconsin regiments are serving in that state, have given them repeated orders to return fugitive slaves and to guard rebel property. We are glad to learn that the orders are not obeyed by Col. Utley, as they are clearly contrary to law, and we hope the other Wisconsin colonels will take the same stand. We supposed the disgraceful duty referred to had ceased to be required in our army, but it seems the practice is still continued in Kentucky. We hope such representations will be made to the President as will cause a correction of this evil.

Insult to the Intelligence of Volunteer Soldiers.—The Madison Patriot, in its anger at the character of the vote given by the volunteers from this state, deliberately insults and maligns them. It says:

"The whole thing of this army voting, is a most consummate humbug. So far as getting at the real political sentiments of the soldiers, it is impossible. After an absence of a year or more, they know nothing of what is going on at home."

Nothing could show the real feeling of the democratic leaders, all of whom opposed the law allowing soldiers to vote, than this declaration of the Patriot. These leaders have been sorely disappointed in their expectations of obtaining the political control of the state, based upon the fact, as well known to themselves as to anybody else, that the large preponderance of volunteers were republicans, and in their failure to disfranchise the defenders of their country resort to abuse and villification of the men from whom they attempted to withhold one of the most valuable rights of freemen.

Vote of the Regiments.—The Twenty-fourth regiment gave 145 majority for Brown.

The First gave 50 majority for Potter.

The Tenth and Twenty-first held no election.

The Tenth battery gave sixty-three for Potter and three for Brown.

The Twenty-second regiment gives Potter 233 majority, and swells the majorities of the republican assemblymen and the state senator in Racine county.

The Twenty-third regiment gives Sloan, republican, 159; Guppy, democrat, 228; Cobb, republican, 149; Bragg, Union, 9.

The Eleventh regiment gives Sloan about 30 majority.

Michigan.—The last report from Michigan is that Baldwin, democrat, is elected in the 5th congressional district. The 6th district is in doubt. The legislature will stand about thus: Senate, 17 republicans, 15 democrats; House, 58 republicans, 42 democrats.

From the Twelfth Battery.

Corinth, Nov. 7. 1862.

We are packing up all our tents and baggage, preparing to leave this place, to-day, for Holly Springs. I believe rumors are current here that a great battle has been fought at that place, between Hamilton and Price, and that the latter is defeated; as to the truth of the rumor I can not say, but the hotels and large buildings here are being fitted up for hospital purposes.

Wheeler S. Bowen.

Correspondence of the Daily Gazette.

From the Twenty-Third Regiment.

Camp near Lexington, Ky., Oct. 30, 1862.

Editors Gazette:—Our regiment is so often changed from one brigade to another, and from the command of one general to another, that we hardly know at any time what our position, or who our commander will be twenty-four hours hence. Since I wrote you last we have been separated from the brigade to which we were formerly attached, and are now brigaded with the 96th, 82d and 108th Ohio infantry, and 19th Kentucky cavalry. To Gen. Smith, who formerly commanded our brigade, has been assigned the command of a brigade at Lexington, and we are now under the command of Brig. Gen. Burbridge, a native Kentuckian. This last change is deeply regretted by all who knew Gen. Smith, for he is a man who is in favor of a vigorous prosecution of the war, and believes in using the property of rebels, and even the "sacred nigger," when it can be made to subserve the purposes of government in putting down the rebellion. Gen. Burbridge has already achieved a disgraceful notoriety with the officers and men of his command.

Almost his first act in his official capacity was to issue an order that all negroes who remained within his lines after the expiration of six hours should be expelled from the camp forthwith. His whole care seems to be to protect the property of disloyal citizens from injury by the men under his command. Under date of Oct. 24th, he issued an order, the second article of which reads as follows: "No animals, forage, or any other kind of property will be impressed, stolen, or by any kind of strategem obtained from any man, woman or child, under penalty of having the extremity of the law executed upon such offenders. The general desires to command soldiers, not a disgraceful rabble, whose march creates terror to friends, and make enemies to ourselves and to our country's cause. When necessary to forage, orders will be issued from these headquarters." In the country through which we have passed, and where we are now stationed, treason is the rule and loyalty the exception; and yet no forage, not even wood or straw, may be taken from those who openly gave aid to Morgan's guerrilla band, which preceded us only about one week, stripping the Union men of all within their reach, and in some cases even burning their dwellings. We thought the time had come when treason was no longer protected by our armies, and when rebel property was deemed none too sacred to be used for the comfort of our soldiers. But there are still a few fogy officials who persist in trying to coax the south back into the Union; and we can only hope that we are not yet out of the latitude of changes, and that our next general may be a man whose solicitude for the welfare of traitors will also extend to the men of his command.

We got our tents about the first of the present month, and at 9 o'clock p. m. of the 7th we received orders to be ready to move early the next morning. We were ready accordingly, and at 7 o'clock were marching towards Covington. We were soon joined by the remainder of the brigade, and marched through Covington on the Lexington road; camped at sundown, after having marched fifteen miles. The day was excessively warm, and a scarcity of water greatly aggravated the sufferings of the men, yet they stood the march nobly, and but few fell out by the way. For four successive days we marched without interruption, and on the afternoon of the fourth day camped near Falmouth. After the first day the weather was cool, the roads were hard, dry, and in superb condition for marching, and the men were as little fatigued as if they had remained in camp. Falmouth is a small village, situated on the line of the Kentucky Central railroad, and in time of peace must have been a thriving little town. It had been visited by a detachment of Morgan's cavalry, which left about a week before our entrance. The home guards engaged them in a skirmish, killing eight, and wounding about twenty others.

They were not driven from the place until they had succeeded in burning the railroad bridge at Falmouth, also two others towards Lexington. We remained in camp here nearly two weeks, waiting for our provision train, which had much difficulty in reaching us on account of the unevenness of the roads. We left Falmouth early on the morning of Oct. 20th, and the same day marched to Cynthiana, a distance of twenty-three miles. This is by far the hardest marching we have done; the road was uneven, and marching was still more difficult by the lime stone on the hillsides and in the vallies. The Ohio regiment that was with us marched into camp with hardly half its men in the ranks. The 23d followed it in good order, singing "Old John Brown" as vociferously as if they had done only an ordinary day's work.

Cynthiana, too, has been ravaged by the enemy, and a railroad bridge burned. We camped here two days, when we were ordered to Paris. At Paris we remained in camp four days. The people here are generally loyal, and expressed much joy at the return of the Union army. From Paris we marched to this place, where we are camped four miles from Lexington. Orders have been received to march to-morrow morning, and I must bring this letter to a hasty close. It is rumored that we go to Nicholsville, the terminus of the Kentucky Central railroad.

The health of the regiment is good. We have lost but two men since we entered the service. Mr. Spears, a private in company F, died in the hospital at Covington on the 25th of October. He was a young man of more than ordinary ability, and was highly esteemed by all who knew him. The name of the other I have not been able to learn.

The boys were wild with joy over Lincoln's proclamation. Editors will wrangle over the merits and demerits of the proclamation, but nothing could give greater encouragement or more universal satisfaction to the men in the field than this bold step of the administration.

The Draft in Milwaukee.

The draft in Milwaukee has been postponed until further orders in consequence of errors supposed to exist in the amount of credit due the sixth and ninth wards for volunteers. The draft commissioner gave notice that he should deliver his papers over to Col. Lewis. We have no doubt the draft will be made in a few days, notwithstanding the bluster of the mob.

Col. O'Connor.—Capt. Ely informs us that the circumstances attending the death of Col. O'Connor are such as to utterly preclude the truth of the statement we extracted yesterday from the Dryden (N. Y.) News. After the fall of Col. O'C., our forces held the ground, and our own soldiers carried him to the hospital, where he died before our march from the battle-field. His dead body was left in possession of the enemy, in company with many of our wounded men.

The writer of the letter in the News, Mr. McGregor, is well known to one of the proprietors of this paper as a man of good character and intelligence. He probably made a mistake only as to the Union officer so barbarously treated.

☞ The election in the 24th regiment was held on the march from Bowling Green. The regiment started from camp in the morning, halted at four in the afternoon, held its election, and went on.

The Green Bay Advocate records the death of Daniel Whitney, esq., of that village. Mr. Whitney came to Wisconsin about the year 1819, and hence has been a resident over 40 years. At the time of his death he was said to be the earliest white American resident of Wisconsin. He was an extensive business man, and one of the largest property holders of that section.—The early residents of the state all know Daniel Whitney.

The Last of the Websters.—Colonel Fletcher Webster, who was killed in one of the recent battles near Centreville, was the oldest son of Daniel Webster. His younger son was in the army in Mexico, and died in the service there. His daughter, Mrs. Appleton, died some years ago—so that now there is none left of the blood of the "Websters."

A Railroad Argument.—The Territorial Enterprise says the best estimates put the amount of freight required for Washoe and its dependencies, during the eight winter months, at 28,000,000 pounds. At 4½ cents per pound, the freight of this would amount to $1,260,000. This is a forcible argument in favor of a railway across the mountains.

At Tiffin, Ohio, the other day, Van Amburg's trained elephant "Hannibal" broke open the wagon of a candy peddler who followed the show, and gobbled down six thousand gingerbread cakes, seventy pounds of assorted candy, and forty pounds of "French kisses."

The Alabama.—It has come out that the depredations of this vessel involve the rights of no less than three European governments—England, Italy and Portugal, and are likely to become a subject of special interest to all foreign nations.

Black Republicans in Cuba.—It is reported by passengers from Cuba that a large number of slaves from Texas and Louisiana are run across and sold there, and that they are demoralizing the Cuban slaves by by Lincoln songs.

Since the beginning of the war New York has raised an aggregate force of 219,059 men, of which 188,070 are infantry, 9,679 artillery, 9,642 cavalry, 855 engineers, 163 rocket battalion, and 19,650 recruits raised and being organized in the state.

M. Jomard, one of the last survivors of Napoleon's Egyptian Expedition, has just died suddenly in Paris, at the age of 85 years. He was a member of the French Institute, and conservator of the department of maps and plans at the Imperial Library.

Factors in New York now quote their coals at $7.50a$8 per ton; but the poor, who are obliged to procure it at retail by the pail full, pay from $10 to $12 per ton. They pay ten cents a pail for it at every grocery—three cents more than its price a short time ago.

☞ General Banks, in a few remarks which he made from the platform of a railroad car in Boston, said that the approaching winter was not to be lost in inaction. The government was determined now to put forth its strength. Numerous expeditions were on foot that could not, if vigorously pressed, but be fatal to the revolted states.

Secessionists in Nevada Territory.—General James W. Nye has paid a visit to California for the purpose of obtaining a sufficient military force to preserve order in Nevada, of which he is governor. Large numbers of secessionists had left California for that territory, and apprehensions existed of difficulty with them.

A surgeon of one of the New England States, who is in the army, states that practice in surgery by the numerous incapables in the army does not improve them. The practice of amputating is much too common. A case is stated where there were in the hands of surgeons some twentyfour patients, who were badly wounded in the thigh. The surgical direction was that nothing but amputation would save them. Accordingly the knife was applied in six cases, and as death ensued in each case, it was thought useless to try it upon the remainder. They, however, all got well.

Encouraging.—The Milwaukee News has the following item of encouraging election news:

The Second District.—Sloan has a majority over Col. Guppy, on the home vote, of about one thousand. It is barely possible that the army vote will elect the Colonel

Last Night's Report.

Milwaukee, Nov. 10.

The draft in this state commenced today in some localities, and passed off quietly and in order. In Ozaukee county the lists were seized by a mob, destroyed, and the canvasser severely handled, and fled to this city.

In Milwaukee city there were strong indications of trouble, complaints being made that injustice had been done to some of the wards in not giving proper credit to volunteers. A crowd of the 9th warders assembled and marched through the city to the number of three or four hundred in procession. The result of the matter was, the draft was postponed for the present.

Fortress Monroe, Nov. 9.

The Richmond papers of Tuesday say that the abolitionists arrived in force from Washington, N. C., to a point on the Roanoke river, below Weldon, to cut off the rebel troops. The abolitionists were kept at bay while the confederates fell back to Spring Green, below Williamston, with the loss of two killed and thirty-one wounded. The federal loss was very heavy, including one entire cavalry company cut up and destroyed.

Washington, Nov. 10.

All statements alleging disaffection in the army in consequence of a change in the command of the army of the Potomac are pronounced, by those having the best means of knowing, to be without foundation.

Norwich, Ct., Nov. 10.

A salute of thirty-seven guns in honor of Gen. Burnside's promotion was fired here to-day.

Augusta, Ga., Nov. 6.

The Savannah Republican of this morning says the abolitionists were bombarding Tampa Bay, Fla., on the 3d. Our forces were confident of their ability to hold out.

In Jackson, on the 5th inst., a cartridge factory exploded, killing every person employed in the works. Not less than thirty lives were lost.

Mobile, Nov. 6.

Advices from Holly Springs state that enemy has advanced to Lagrange, Tenn., and is advancing on this place. Colonel Jackson's cavalry have had a skirmish at Lamar.

Charleston, Nov. 6.

Gen. Beauregard has ordered non-combatants to leave Charleston with their movable property. He has also ordered all the slaves to be removed. This is done in order to avoid embarrassment and delay in case a sudden necessity should arise for the removal of the entire population.

Washington, Nov. 10.

The McClellan papers talk very mildly. The Herald says it shall support Burnside as it has done McClellan, and like the World calls for a change of cabinet. The Philadelphia Inquirer says political necessity required active movement and a man to make it. The Tribune praises God. The Times is satisfied.

Private dispatches state that there was no excitement in New York, and no effect produced on stocks.

Sickles sent in forty prisoners to-day.

The 16th Virginia, 800 strong, mustered in to-day.

Indianapolis, Nov. 10.

The president has not yet accepted the declination of Gen. Morris, and it is now thought that he will be assigned a separate command.

The removal of McClellan from the command of the Potomac army, is well received here by the friends of a vigorous prosecution of the war. The appointment of Burnside as his successor is particularly gratifying. Indiana believes in Burnside.

New York, Nov. 10.

The recent reported challenge of Cassius M. Clay to D. C. Birdsall, proves a hoax.

The Vanderbilt goes to sea to-night in search of the Alabama.

The following are extracts from the Richmond papers:

The Richmond Whig of Nov. 8th, in speaking of the recent northern elections, says they show plainly that the tide sets all one way, and that against Abraham Lincoln and his rampant war party. If the electioneering assertions and appeals of his party could be credited, this success of the democrats is about equal to a declaration of peace.

Washington, Nov. 10.

Special to Chicago Times.—Authentic intelligence, direct from the extreme front to-night, reports all quiet. The army is rapidly receiving supplies. Cars run from here to Warrenton to-day.

Our forces hold the Rapprhannock bridge with increased force.

The enemy yesterday made a demonstration against our force at Waterloo, but retired rapidly on the appearance of our infantry.

Pleasanton has taken 300 prisoners during his pursuit of the enemy.

There is no doubt whatever of the escape of Jackson to the east side of the Blue Ridge, and his junction with Longstreet, either at Culpepper or south of it. His rear guard passed Chester Gap on Thursday, the only gap which our forces did not reach in time to hold and prevent it.

There is now no rebel force in the Shenandoah valley, and the rebel army is united and in front of us on the Rapidan river.

All our rear approaches continue well guarded, and communication is perfect.

Washington, Nov. 10.

Special to Chicago Times.—The removal of Gen. McClellan continues to be the theme of the day. The publication of Gen. Halleck's letter confirms previous intimations that he has favored the change made in the commanding general for some time. The official order is made public to-day, and is dated Nov. 5th, just after election, and reads that the removal is made by direction of the president, and that General Burnside be placed in full command.

Direct arrivals from Warrenton state that, while the change is somewhat regretted, there is no demonstration of any kind. In fact, correspondents from there say that the army seemed to be prepared for it, owing to the almost daily rumors in the newspapers to the same effect. Gen. Burnside has quietly assumed command, and has stated that the army will continue its forward movement with as much vigor as is possible.

To-Day's Report.

[Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.]

MORNING DISPATCHES.

Headquarters Army of the Potomac,
November 10.

The following order was issued by Gen. Burnside on taking command of the army, in accordance with general order 182 issued by the president of the United States:

I hereby assume command of the army of the Potomac. Patriotism and the exercise of my every energy in the direction of this army, aided by the full and hearty cooperation of its officers and men, will, I hope, under the blessing of God, insure it success. Having been a sharer of the privations, and and a witness of the bravery of the old army of the Potomac in the Maryland campaign, and fully identified with them in their feeling of respect and esteem for Gen. McClellan, entertained through a long and most friendly association with him, I feel that it is not as a stranger that I assume command. To the 9th army corps so long and intimately associated with me, I need say nothing; our histories are identical. With diffidence for myself, but with a proud confidence in the unswerving loyalty and determination of the gallant army now entrusted to my care, I accept the control with the steadfast assurance that the just cause must prevail.

Signed, A. E. BURNSIDE,
Maj. Gen. Com'd'g.

Washington, Nov. 10.

Maj. Gen. Hooker has been assigned to the command of the army corps heretofore commanded by Gen. Fitz John Porter, who has been ordered to Washington to stand his trial upon the charges preferred against him by Gen. Pope for misconduct at the battle of Bull Run.

Special to Tribune.—Gen. Schenck has been designated as the successor of Major General Wool, and will probably be well enough to leave for his post within a day or two.

A private letter from New Orleans says: Gen. Butler has recently taken possession of two large plantations near that city, and has transferred a large number of loyal blacks to them for active service. The number of fugitive blacks in the department of the Gulf is increasing at a rapid rate, but by employing them in this way, says the writer, paying them small wages, and charging them for their clothing, the government will be fully reimbursed for the expense they may have been to.

Norman Wiard, who superintended the fitting out of the Burnside expedition, is doing the same for the Banks' expedition. He leaves for New York to-morrow.

Maj. Don Piatt has been appointed judge advocate of the court of inquiry about to assemble at Cincinnati to examine the case of Gen. Buell.

One of those brilliant affairs which shed lustre upon our volunteer cavalry, occurred Sunday morning, at Fredericksburg. Capt. E. Dalman, of Gen. Sigel's staff, with 60 of the 1st Indiana and a small detachment of the 6th Ohio cavalry, dashed into Fredericksburg early in the morning, where they found eight companies of Virginia cavalry. Without giving the enemy time to form, Capt. D. pounced upon them with sixty of his men, when a desperate hand to hand fight ensued, lasting for three hours, when the rebels were routed. Capt. Dalman lost only one killed and three missing. Our men returned safely, on Sunday night, bringing thirty-nine prisoners with their horses and accoutrements, and their wagons loaded with army cloth.

Heavy firing was heard on Sunday at Sigel's headquarters, in the direction of the Rappahannock, which led to the belief that Mason and Stuart were at it again. At night there was a rumor that Pleasanton had driven the rebels off.

Special to Herald.—I have news from Richmond up to the 6th. Lee arrived there about two weeks ago, and has been there ever since. He has assumed his position as general commander-in-chief, and acts as military adviser to the war department. Gen. Joe Johnston succeeds Lee to the active command of the rebel armies north of Richmond, and now has his headquarters at Culpepper. Stonewall Jackson's corps has been increased to 50,000 men. The advance of the army of the Potomac was known in Richmond, and the situation well understood. The rebel plan of operations was said to be to mass their forces on the Rappahannock, and then fight the greatest battle of the war.

The New Merrimac is completed and has been below Fort Darling for several days, with steam up and her full compliment and crew aboard. She is ready for a fight, and may be expected at the mouth of James river at any moment. She passed the obstructions in James river coming down, but owing to the peculiar nature it is impossible for her to get back to Richmond. If worsted in an encounter with our navy she can only seek protection under the guns of Fort Darling. Officers in the rebel service have been detached by the Richmond war department to carry on a contraband trade for their government between Baltimore and Richmond; 1,500 pounds of quinine, 100 pounds of fulminating powder, 2,000,000 percussion caps lately ran the blockade of the Potomac in possession of some of these parties.

Washington, Nov. 10.

Proposals for about thirteen millions of 10,000 bonds, in exchange for legal tender notes, will be opened on Monday, the 17th instant, at the treasury department, at noon, at which time they will be received. The bonds offered are those not yet disposed of. They are of the date of October 1st, 1861. The interest will run from the date of deposit, unless successful bidders prefer to pay accrued interest from Oct. 1st, 1861, on current coupons, in coin, to be reimbursed at its maturity. Bidders must deposit with some assistant treasurer 18 per cent of the amount offered, and forward with their bids the certificate of such deposit.

AFTERNOON DISPATCHES.

We have no report up to the time of going to press.

The Draft in Ozaukee.—We learn that the draft commissioner had a decidedly unpleasant experience of it in his attempts to perform his duty in the inhospitable latitude of Ozaukee county. Had his difficulties presented themselves in the ordinary and expected form, he could have got along with them. But they did not. The women were the matter. The men looked on complacently and willingly. Apparently they had no objections to going. But the women had no notion whatever of letting them go; and to prevent such a possibility, they made a dead set on the commissioner with clubs; broke his head and his draft boxes at the same time, and brought all proceedings to a summary close. The commissioner telegraphed to Madison for protection against these Amazons.—Mil. Sentinel.

Boston Boot and Shoe Market.—There is no abatement in the call for boots and shoes; dealers and manufacturers are full of orders, and for the first time for eight years we see the demand for nearly every kind of boots and shoes larger than the supply. Most of the manufacturers are making good profits on their goods, the only exceptions being those who in their hurry to get something to do took orders from dealers for goods before the late rise in stocks and work; consequently they are getting only about cost for their articles, while the individuals with whom they contracted are reaping large gains. The journeymen are making good wages, and the competition is such that in many towns there seems to be more than an even chance that their profits will be larger than those of their employers. Pegging and sewing machines are being pressed into service and nearly all of our large manufacturers are about adopting these improvements.

The call for army shoes confines active and good hemlock, half sole shoe, rivited in the sides and shank, will sell readily at about twenty cents a pair more than the same shoes would bring three months ago. There is less call for oak sewed shoes and parties here have lately renewed contracts at the deputy quartermaster's office in New York, at from five to eight cents a pair below the prices at which they have been putting in goods. Hemlock stock has advanced until it now costs nearly as much as oak, and is hard to obtain at any price.—Boston Boot and Shoe Reporter, Oct. 31.

The Mutual Life Insurance Company

OF THE

STATE OF WISCONSIN

Presents advantages in all respects equal, and in some superior, to those of other companies doing business in the northwest. Its rates, its plan of operations, and its basis, are identical with the best companies in this country and Europe. Its age, and consequently its accumulations, are not equal to theirs in amount, but in proportion to the age of risks, and amount at risk, they will compare favorably with the most successful.

Its assets, which have resulted solely from their accumulations amount to $115,712.85, and its annual income, from policies now in force, over $85,000.

Its assets and business are constantly increasing. Its losses have been promptly paid. Its trustees are well known, honorable business men, and are as capable of managing an institution of this kind, as men in any other portion of the United States. The experience of the company thus far proves that we can have as reliable companies in the west as any where else, if we will, and self-interest certainly indicates that we should have them, and build up home interests in every practicable way. In the above respects, this company claims equality with its co-workers, and in the following superiority: It obtains the greater portion of its business in the healthiest portion of the United States, thus having the advantage of a less per centage of loss; it receives higher rates of interest on its investments, thus making more rapid accumulations—both very important items in Life Insurance; and its expenses have been less in proportion to its business than any other new company doing business in the United States.

PROCLAMATION.

ANNUAL THANKSGIVING.

To the People of Wisconsin:

Amidst the manifold vicissitudes and calamities that have befallen and surrounded us, threatening the life of our nation, and the lives of so many of its heroic and noble sons, it particularly becomes us to turn with grateful hearts to the Supreme Being for the many blessings we have enjoyed, and the afflictions we have been spared.

The horrors and devastations of war, so fiercely raging around us, have not touched the border of our state; excepting the brave men who have rallied around our country's flag in this time of peril, our citizens have been allowed to pursue their peaceful avocations; our harvest, though not as abundant as Providence sometimes has pleased to grant us, has yet well compensated the labor bestowed upon it, and well filled our houses and barns; the savage tribes upon our border settlements, so threatening at one time to our peace, have been quieted, and kept under surveillance.

The great cause of our nation, it is true, has not triumphed yet over its enemies, but neither has it yet failed; the enemy has been driven from the soil of the loyal states; our army has been reinforced by hundreds of thousands of brave, patriotic and noble men ready to do battle, and, if necessary to die for the integrity of the Union; our resources and energies are unimpaired; we have reason to be hopeful for the future, and therefore thankful for the past.

The loyalty, honor and patriotism of the state of Wisconsin have been nobly sustained by her brave sons upon every field of battle where they have been called upon to vindicate our national flag. The just pride which we feel in the bravery of our noble soldiers should fill our hearts with gratitude to Almighty God, who has sustained them in their hour of trial.

For these and other uncounted blessings which the infinite goodness of God has vouchsafed to us during the past year, we should thank Him from the depth of our hearts. And therefore, and in accordance with the time honored custom, I do hereby appoint THURSDAY, the 27th day of November, 1862, as a day of thanksgiving and rest, and recommend to the people of this state on that day to abstain from secular labor, and to assemble at their usual places of worship to show their grateful hearts to the beneficent Ruler of the Universe, and to pray for a speedy suppression of the rebellion, and for peace to our distracted country.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto subscribed my name and caused the Great Seal of State to be affixed, this 31st day of October, A. D. 1862.

[SEAL.]

EDWARD SALOMON, Governor.
Edward Ilsley, Secretary of State.

Another Janesville Patent.

Mr. A. H. Perkins, of this city, a practical felt-roofer, has just secured a patent for a process of treating coal tar to form a cement or coating of the proper consistency for felt-roofing for buildings, paving streets when wooden blocks are used, building sidewalks, coating wood surface, iron, tin, and other metals, and for analagous purposes.

Mr. Perkins is entitled to great credit for the excellent work he has done for years past, and for his perseverance in experimenting until he has produced a superior article, and which can be made at the place where used. The following are among the advantages of his invention, as enumerated in his patent, from which we quote:

1st. It saves the heavy expense of boilers, etc., used in distilling, and by which the business has been retained in the hands of a few capitalists.

2d. It saves all fuel.

3d. It saves time; a few hours only are needed, instead of days as with the old method.

4th. A greater bulk of cement is made from a given amount of material, and the product is more durable from the fact of its vulcanization by the process.

5th. It can be made at any place; and therefore may be made so as to adapt it to the inclination or flatness of the roof.

6th. It saves transportation from the few places where it is now made by the old process, as by the new process it can be made wherever the work of roofing, etc., is to be done, or at the numerous gas works in the country.

The felt-roofs have been thoroughly tested by use on many of the best business blocks in Chicago, Milwaukee, etc., and by Messrs. Jackman & Smith, Lappin, McKey & Bro., Jenkins & Dewey, Myers, and others, on their respective blocks of buildings in this city, giving entire satisfaction.

Further particulars may be had by addressing Perkins & Goss, Milwaukee, or Perkins & Goss, Janesville.

The Wisconsin Puritan.—This is the title of a new monthly religious paper established by the Congregational Association of this state, and published in Milwaukee at 50 cents a year. It is under the editorial management of a committee of clergymen, composed of Wm. DeLoss Love, C. D. Helmer, L. Clapp, A. L. Chapin, N. D. Graves, M. P. Kinney and I. N. Cundall. It will be an able exponent of religious doctrine and duty, and a useful medium of communication with those it is designed to benefit.

To the Friends of the Second Regiment.—Capt. Ely will return to the army on Thursday next, and will take charge of any packages which may be sent to members of the Second regiment. No articles of food or delicacies should be forwarded, as several weeks may elapse before transportation can be had from Washington to the regiment. The articles may be left at Geo. Benton's cigar store.

Wanted, a girl to take charge of the cooking for a small family. Good wages will be paid, apply at the residence of Wm. Addy, corner of Franklin & Wall streets, north of Hyatt House. no11d2d

Readings from the Poets.—Professor McAfferty, a gentleman who has made elocution a study for years with the best masters, and familiarized himself with the choicest specimens of English, Scotch, Irish and German poetry, will give an entertainment on Wednesday evening of this week at the Baptist Church. Several of our citizens have heard him in private circles since he came to the city, and all express themselves highly gratified with his rendering of the various styles he attempts. The notices of the press where he has read are very commendatory, and there can be no doubt of his entire success in satisfying the lovers of the rare and noble art of good reading. His selections to-morrow evening will comprehend some of the choicest gems of literature. Tickets 25 cents, to be had at the bookstores.

Death of Joseph Lathrop.—Joseph Lathrop, for a long time connected with the Milwaukee press, died in that city last Friday evening, in the 36th year of his age. He was known to many of our citizens.

Lamps and Shades.—G. R. Curtis advertises a new stock of lamps and shades, which are good to look at and good to use. He is also replenishing his general stock of drugs and medicines, which, if not in all cases palateable, are highly useful when needed. George, as everybody knows, keeps a good stock of all articles in his line of business, and people like to trade with him.

County Board of Supervisors.—This body commenced its semi-annual session to day. We shall give a daily report of its proceedings.

Massachusetts.—The candidates elected are as follows:

Governor, John A. Andrew, Republican.
Lt. Governor, Joel Hayden, "
Secy. of State, O. Warner, "
Treasurer, Henry K. Olivar, "
Auditor, Levi Reed, "
Attorney General, D. Foster, "

To the Friends of the "Thirteenth Wisconsin."

The Hospital Relief Society, of this city, has received, through Dr. Lord of the 13th Wisconsin regiment, an urgent application for stores for their hospital at Fort Henry. He represents their need as very great, their necessary hospital supplies being exceedingly meagre, and over eighty sick. The society wish to give substantial and speedy response to this call, and hope to have a large and valuable box ready to pack next Saturday.

As the 13th was mostly recruited from Rock, Walworth and Green counties, we hope for much assistance from their friends in this matter.

The articles most needed are bedsacks and bed-quilts, sheets, pillows and pillow cases, shirts, drawers and socks, and any delicacies relished by the sick. Packages designed for this box should be marked "13th Wis," and may be left at Dearborn's book store, or at the society rooms on Thursday next. By order of the society.

JUSTICES BLANKS FOR SALE.

S-T-1860-X.

The language of nature and experience demonstrates that whoever would enjoy the pleasures of food—the beauties of landscapes—the joys of companionship—richness of literature—or the honors of station and renown—must preserve their health.

The stomach is the receptacle of all nourishment, and the fountain from which all parts of the body, derive sustenance. The effect of foul injurious food entering the stomach, is to derange the digestive organs, and produce headache, loss of appetite, unrefreshed sleep incapacity to perform any mental or physical duty, &c., and are the symptoms of that horrid disease which assumes a thousand shapes, and points towards a miserable life and premature decay. The Medical Faculty has labored for generations to discover reliable appetizers and the proper means of overcoming stomachic derangements. Certain ingredients have been long known as partially effective. Among these were

CALISAYA BARK & ST. CROIX RUM.

An invalid physician, sojourning in the tropical island of St. Croix, observing the habits of the natives, gathered the recipe for the final accomplishment of this most important end. The article was first used as a private medicine, when its salutary effects becoming known, it was brought out under the name of

DRAKE'S PLANTATION BITTERS.

They act with unerring power, and are taken with the pleasure of a beverage. They perform most wonderful cures in stubborn cases of Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Nervous Affections, Loss of Appetite, Intermittent Fevers, Diarrhœa, Sour Stomach, Headache, Fever and Ague, Weakness, Mental Despondency, &c As a morning appetizer and after dinner tonic, they should be in every family. They are a delightful, exhilarating stimulant, without any subsequent reaction.

IMPORTANT CERTIFICATE.

Rochester, December 28th, 1862.

Messrs. P. H. Drake—

Gentlemen:—I have suffered terribly with Dyspepsia for three or four years, and tried many remedies without effect. I had to abandon my profession, and suffered greatly from everything I ate. I have now tried the Plantation Bitters—they helped me—I continued their use, and am now nearly a well man. I know of several similar cases.

Respectfully yours,
REV. J. S. CATHORN."

S-T-1860-X.

Intelligent persons and physicians can judge of the efficacy of the Plantation Bitters from the following partial formula.

CASCARILLA BARK

was known and used in Germany for Dyspepsia, Chronic Diarrhœa, Colic, Dysentery, and diseases of the Stomach and Bowels as early as 1690.

DANDELION,

for Inflammations of the Loins and Spleen in Dropsical Affections and Billiary Secretions, or Obstructions of the Abdominal Viscera.

CALISAYA, OR KING'S BARK,

was unknown to civilization until the middle of the 17th century. Humboldt makes favorable mention of the febrifuge qualities of this article as an Antidote to Fever and Ague, Intermittent and Malarious Fevers, in his extensive South American travels. The countess, wife of the Viceroy of Peru, having experienced the beneficial effects of this Bark, sent it to Europe in 1640. It was sold by the Jesuits for the enormous sum of its own weight in silver, and was thus called Jesuits' Powders. In 1658, Sir John Talbot employed it with great success in France, in the treatment of Fever and Ague, Dyspepsia, Nervous Affections, Loss of Appetite, Weakness and Debility, Palpitation of the Heart, Diarrhœa, &c., under the name of English Powders and in 1679, he sold the secret of its origin to Louis XIV, by whom it was divulged. It is now a standard remedy in all Pharmacopœia, and is employed in preparing the Plantation Bitters.

Chamomile Flowers, for enfeebled digestion; Wintergreen, valuable for Scrofula, Rheumatism and Nefratic Affections; Lavender Flowers, aromatic, stimulant and tonic, highly invigorating in Nervous Debility; Anise, an aromatic carminative, creating flesh, muscle and milk. Much used in nursing.

S-T-1860-X.

Another ingredient of remarkable and wonderful virtue used in the preparation of these Bitters, is a native of Brazil, and as yet unknown to the commerce of the world. A Spanish writer says:

* * * * * "administered with St. Croix Rum, never fails to relieve nervous tremor, wakefulness, disturbed sleep, &c., and that it is used with great effect by the Brazilians, Spanish and Peruvian Ladies to heighten their color and beauty. It imparts cheerfulness to the disposition, vigor to the appetite and brilliancy to the complexion."

We withhold its name from the public for the present.

To the above are added Clove Buds, Orange, Carraway, Coriander, Snake Root, &c., all preserved in perfectly pure

ST. CROIX RUM.

The tonic properties of St. Croix Rum, and its powerful invigorating effects, have been long known to the physicians of the world.

Billious, Intermittent and Chill Fevers, engendered by the change of water and diet of travelers, particularly upon western rivers, are prevented and cured by the Plantation Bitters. They are also reliable to prevent sea sickness.

WHAT OTHERS SAY.

"Philadelphia, 1st month, 16th day, 1862.

Esteemed Friend.—Wilt thou send me another dozen of thy Bitters! Nothing has proven so beneficial to my invalid wife or myself, as the Plantation Bit

Thy friend,
ISAAC HOWLAND."

N. B.—The secret of the immense sale of the Plantation Bitters, is their guaranteed purity. The St. Croix Rum, and every article used, is warranted perfectly pure, and the money will be returned if not as represented.

The Plantation Bitters are put up in unique quart bottles, and sold by all respectable Druggists, Grocers, Hotels and Resturants throughout the world. Be particular that every bottle bears the fac-simile of the Proprietor's signature.

THE GREAT SALE!

OF

McKey & Bro's

MAMMOTH STOCK

HAS COMMENCED.

THE Largest Stock ever offered in Wisconsin can now be inspected at their store.

A GREAT TRIUMPH

has recently been achieved by

THE UNION ARMY,

the importance of which to the whole country is admitted by every loyal man. A great Triumph has also been achieved by

McKEY & BRO.

the results of which are not without their importance to the whole people of Wisconsin, as they must admit upon inspecting our enormous stock, and learning the prices. Five months ago, foreseeing the tremendous advance which has since taken place in the price of

DOMESTIC GOODS,

and believing in the old proverb that "Delays are Dangerous," we took "Time" by the forelock and brought our immense

CASH RESOURCES

to bear on a depreciated market, and as we had lived and prospered amongst the people of Wisconsin, we resolved that they should have the benefit of our long experience and large Cash Capital. We therefore purchased in May and June last over

$100,000 Worth of Domestic Goods,

consisting of 300 bales and cases of Fine Medium and Heavy Bleached and Unbleached Sheetings and Shirting, in all the popular widths and makes.

100 cases Merrimac, Cocheco, American, Sprague and other celebrated brands of Fast Color Calicoes, printed in advance for this fall's trade.

50 cases Cotton Flannel, bleached and unbleached, long thick nap, and made on the heaviest drilling.

30 cases and bales of Denims, in the well known Amoskeag, Hay Maker, Mount Vernon and other superior makes.

25 cases and bales of Shirting Stripes, the heaviest and most durable, such as Amoskeag, York, Westbrook, &c.

20 cases Gingham, in Beverly Lancaster and other heavy and fast color makes.

300 bales of Batting, low, medium and Fine.

We have a Monster stock of Flannels of every make, color, quality and width. All our White Flannels are of the highly prized make of Samuel Gilbert, Andover, Mass. They are warranted pure wool and sulphur, stove dried which imparts to them their well known medicinal qualities, and makes them sought after by every New England housewife.

Bargains for Cash.

We shall sell a good Madder Print for 10c. A full Madder Print for one shilling, and all our best and choicest styles for 15c.

We shall sell a good unbleached Factory for one shilling, and a good bleached Factory for the same price.

Choice printed and plain DeLaines, worth 40c, at one shilling. If asked how we can afford to do so, we answer "cash" does it.

So much for our Domestic Goods, which have been laid in at a cost of fifty cents on the dollar of what other merchants have since been obliged to pay for them.

We have just received 20 cases of new and choice styles of Hamilton, Manchester and Pacific DeLaines, which we shall sell at Cost.

Also 25 pieces of Middlesex, all wool, pressed Flannels, in choice shades, and which we offer at the old price is full and complete, and was bought when prices were at the bottom before the tremendous advance in exchange took place.

We have now on hand a magnificent stock of

DRESS GOODS,

consisting of Double Twilled all wool Merinos, printed and plain; English Merinos, printed and plain; French and English Repps and Velours, printed and plain; Tasmania Cloths, Ottomens, Palestrino, Garibaldis, &c. Also 200 pieces all wool and Union Plaid Merinos.

SHAWLS AND CLOAKS.

We have over 3,000 superior all wool heavy Blanket Shawls—bought cheap, and which we shall sell cheap.

Our Cloak stock is replete with all the New and Desirable styles.

MILLINERY GOODS.

We are now opening our usual fall and winter stock of French Millinery Goods, which will be found to contain all the new and fashionable styles.

In Boots, Shoes and Rubbers

we are largely and well assorted.

Our Clothing Store

will be found to contain every thing that is new, elegant and economical. consisting of

Coats, Vests and Pants, got up under the supervision of our own experienced cutter, together with a fine assortment of

HATS, CAPS, CLOTHS, CASSIMERES, VESTINGS, &c., &c.

In conclusion we would advise the public not to be attracted by those who show false colors or get up "clap trap" advertisments but to come at once and inspect our stock, which is larger than all other stocks in Janesville put together, and which will be sold at less than present New York nett cash prices, at the store of McKEY & BRO.

NEW MILLINERY

FOR

Fall and Winter Trade.

MISS REYNOLDS begs to inform her numerous customers that she has now ready for inspection an extensive variety of

Millinery Goods

suited to the fall and winter trade, all of which have been selected with the greatest care from direct importers, and as her stock has been purchased exclusively for cash previous to the late advance in foreign exchange she is enabled to offer such inducements to her customers as will entirely set aside any attempt at

COMPETITION.

Miss R. calls special attention to her elegant assortment of

Bonnet and Trimming Ribbons of all widths and colors,
Bonnet Silks and Velvets, Black and Colored Crapes,
Vesuve and Garabaldi Velvets, Uncut Velvets,
&c., the Richest and Newest styles of French and American Flowers, Roses

New York Cash Store!

October 28th, 1862.

THE LARGEST, CHEAPEST & MOST EXTENSIVE

MERCANTILE ESTABLISHMENT

in the Interior of Wisconsin.

SMITH & BOSTWICK

PROPRIETORS.

All kinds of Merchandise on Sale by the

Piece, Package or Case

Also, at Retail, at from Fifteen to Twenty per cent Less than the present price of the Manufacturers.

The Fall and Winter Campaign

is now

Fully Opened.

THE NEW YORK CASH STORE

has got

The Lead

and is

BOUND TO KEEP IT.

There is no Stock of Goods in Janesville that can Stop It.

WE have now in our Three Stores the largest stock of all kinds of Merchandise to be found in the Interior of Wisconsin, particularly of

STAPLE GOODS.

Our entire stock of Staple Goods were bought in July and August, for cash, before the great rise in all kinds of Cotton Goods, and we are selling them from

Fifteen to Twenty per cent Less than the manufacturers are by the 50 cases. We are in receipt every week of the manufacturers' prices of all the cotton goods made in the United States, which is open to the public for examination at our store at all times, so that our customers can see for themselves whether what we say is so or not.

We shall for the next thirty day sell our entire stock of

Domestic Goods,

consisting of Prints, Brown and Bleached Sheetings, Denims, Stripes, Ticks, Checks, Brown and Bleached Cotton Flannels, Bags, Batting and our entire Domestic stock at least twenty per cent less than the present prices of the manufacturers.

Our stock of Foreign

is twice as large as it ever was before, and much the largest stock in the city. All bought before the great rise in foreign exchange, consequently will be sold at less prices than we could by the same goods for at the present time in New York.

LADIES' CLOAKS.

The largest stock of these goods to be found in the state just received, and selling full as cheap as last year.—Also a very large assortment of

of all kinds, from the lowest price wool shawl, to the best Brocha made.

LADIES' FURS!

Three thousand dollars worth of those goods just received. In these goods we know no competition—having bought our entire stock direct from the importers and manufacturers, saving two or three jobbers' profits. We are selling Ladies' Furs less than merchants pay for them who buy in a small way. We have much the largest stock in Janesville, and will sell them from 25 to 50 per cent less than any house in this city. We mean exactly what we say.

Ladies' Hoods, Nubias, Skating Caps,

&c. Those goods we are selling cheaper than we did last year, or any other year, so that our customers cannot say but there is one thing they can buy as cheap this year as they ever did. We are just in receipt of

TWO HUNDRED DOZEN

of the above goods, direct from a New England manufacturer, to whom we gave our orders some two months since, and were made at least thirty per cent less than we could buy the goods for now. We are selling the same quality of Hoods for one dollar, that we sold last year at twelve shillings. We have also a few beautiful trimmed with fur, to be found in no other place in Janesville.

SILK PL SHIHOODS,

Merchant Tailoring Department.

Our Cloth Room now contains much the largest stock of good

CLOTHS,
CASSIMERES,
VESTINGS
and
FURNISHING GOODS,

to be found in this city, and as good as can be found in any city in this country, from which we are

MANUFACTURING ALL KINDS of GARMENT,

in as good style as can be obtained in Broadway or elsewhere. Persons wanting fine clothing need not go away for it, as we will satisfy them that it can be done here as well as elsewhere.

READY-MADE CLOTHING

and

HAT AND CAP STORE.

This branch of our business having increased to a very large trade, we are running a store separate from our main store, which is three doors below, on Main street, where we have the largest stock of

and

GENTS' FURNISHING GOODS

to be found in any establishment in this city.

Particular attention is called to our immense stock of

Mens' & Boys' Hats & Caps

of all qualities and prices. In these goods we shall not attempt to enumerate our stock, as that would be an impossibility. We buy all our Hats and Caps by the case from the manufacturers, and we will guarantee to sell these particular goods

Twenty-Five per cent Cheaper than they can be bought at any other house in this city. Persons living within one hundred miles of Janesville, will make money, by coming here to buy their goods; and when you get here, be sure and come to the

before you buy your goods.

Another Janesville Patent.

Mr. A. H. Perkins, of this city, a practical felt-roofer, has just secured a patent for a process of treating coal tar to form a cement or coating of the proper consistency for felt-roofing for buildings, paving streets when wooden blocks are used, building sidewalks, coating wood surface, iron, tin, and other metals, and for analagous purposes.

Mr. Perkins is entitled to great credit for the excellent work he has done for years past, and for his perseverance in experimenting until he has produced a superior article, and which can be made at the place where used. The following are among the advantages of his invention, as enumerated in his patent, from which we quote:

1st. It saves the heavy expense of boilers, etc., used in distilling, and by which the business has been retained in the hands of a few capitalists.

2d. It saves all fuel.

3d. It saves time; a few hours only are needed, instead of days as with the old method.

4th. A greater bulk of cement is made from a given amount of material, and the product is more durable from the fact of its vulcanization by the process.

5th. It can be made at any place; and therefore may be made so as to adapt it to the inclination or flatness of the roof.

6th. It saves transportation from the few places where it is now made by the old process, as by the new process it can be made wherever the work of roofing, etc., is to be done, or at the numerous gas works in the country.

The felt-roofs have been thoroughly tested by use on many of the best business blocks in Chicago, Milwaukee, etc., and by Messrs. Jackman & Smith, Lappin, McKey & Bro., Jenkins & Dewey, Myers, and others, on their respective blocks of buildings in this city, giving entire satisfaction.

Further particulars may be had by addressing Perkins & Goss, Milwaukee, or Perkins & Goss, Janesville.

The Wisconsin Puritan.—This is the title of a new monthly religious paper established by the Congregational Association of this state, and published in Milwaukee at 50 cents a year. It is under the editorial management of a committee of clergymen, composed of Wm. DeLoss Love, C. D. Helmer, L. Clapp, A. L. Chapin, N. D. Graves, M. P. Kinney and I. N. Cundall. It will be an able exponent of religious doctrine and duty, and a useful medium of communication with those it is designed to benefit.

To the Friends of the Second Regiment.—Capt. Ely will return to the army on Thursday next, and will take charge of any packages which may be sent to members of the Second regiment. No articles of food or delicacies should be forwarded, as several weeks may elapse before transportation can be had from Washington to the regiment. The articles may be left at Geo. Benton's cigar store.

Wanted, a girl to take charge of the cooking for a small family. Good wages will be paid, apply at the residence af Wm. Addy, corner of Franklin & Wall streets, north of Hyatt House. no11d2d

Readings from the Poets.—Professor McAfferty, a gentleman who has made elocution a study for years with the best masters, and familiarized himself with the choicest specimens of English, Scotch, Irish and German poetry, will give an entertainment on Wednesday evening of this week at the Baptist Church. Several of our citizens have heard him in private circles since he came to the city, and all express themselves highly gratified with his rendering of the various styles he attempts. The notices of the press where he has read are very commendatory, and there can be no doubt of his entire success in satisfying the lovers of the rare and noble art of good reading. His selections to-morrow evening will comprehend some of the choicest gems of literature. Tickets 25 cents, to be had at the bookstores.

Death of Joseph Lathrop.—Joseph Lathrop, for a long time connected with the Milwaukee press, died in that city last Friday evening, in the 36th year of his age. He was known to many of our citizens.

Lamps and Shades.—G. R. Curtis advertises a new stock of lamps and shades, which are good to look at and good to use. He is also replenishing his general stock of drugs and medicines, which, if not in all cases palateable, are highly useful when needed. George, as everybody knows, keeps a good stock of all articles in his line of business, and people like to trade with him.

County Board of Supervisors.—This body commenced its semi-annual session to day. We shall give a daily report of its proceedings.

Massachusetts.—The candidates elected are as follows:

Governor, John A. Andrew, Republican.
Lt. Governor, Joel Hayden, "
Secy. of State, O. Warner, "
Treasurer, Henry K. Oliver, "
Auditor, Levi Reed, "
Attorney General, D. Foster, "

CONGRESSMEN.

To the Friends of the "Thirteenth Wisconsin."

The Hospital Relief Society, of this city, has received, through Dr. Lord of the 13th Wisconsin regiment, an urgent application for stores for their hospital at Fort Henry. He represents their need as very great, their necessary hospital supplies being exceedingly meagre, and over eighty sick. The society wish to give substantial and speedy response to this call, and hope to have a large and valuable box ready to pack next Saturday.

As the 13th was mostly recruited from Rock, Walworth and Green counties, we hope for much assistance from their friends in this matter.

The articles most needed are bedsacks and bed-quilts, sheets, pillows and pillow cases, shirts, drawers and socks, and any delicacies relished by the sick. Packages designed for this box should be marked "13th Wis," and may be left at Dearborn's book store, or at the society rooms on Thursday next. By order of the society.

JUSTICES BLANKS FOR SALE.

S-T-1860-X.

The language of nature and experience demonstrates that whoever would enjoy the pleasures of food—the beauties of landscapes—the joys of companionship—richness of literature—or the honors of station and renown—must preserve their health.

The stomach is the receptacle of all nourishment, and the fountain from which all parts of the body, derive sustenance. The effect of foul injurious food entering the stomach, is to derange the digestive organs, and produce headache, loss of appetite, unrefreshed sleep incapacity to perform any mental or physical duty, &c., and are the symptoms of that horrid disease which assumes a thousand shapes, and points towards a miserable life and premature decay. The Medical Faculty has labored for generations to discover reliable appetizers and the proper means of overcoming stomachic derangements. Certain ingredients have been long known as partially effective. Among these were

CALISAYA BARK & ST. CROIX RUM.

An invalid physician, sojourning in the tropical island of St. Croix, observing the habits of the natives, gathered the recipe for the final accomplishment of this most important end. The article was first used as a private medicine, when its salutary effects becoming known, it was brought out under the name of

DRAKE'S PLANTATION BITTERS.

They act with unerring power, and are taken with the pleasure of a beverage. They perform most wonderful cures in stubborn cases of Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Nervous Affections, Loss of Appetite, Intermittent Fevers, Diarrhœa, Sour Stomach, Headache, Fever and Ague, Weakness, Mental Despondency, &c As a morning appetizer and after dinner tonic, they should be in every family. They are a delightful, exhilarating stimulant, without any subsequent reaction.

IMPORTANT CERTIFICATE.

Rochester, December 28th, 1862.

Messrs. P. H. Drake—

Gentlemen:—I have suffered terribly with Dyspepsia for three or four years, and tried many remedies without effect. I had to abandon my profession, and suffered greatly from everything I ate. I have now tried the Plantation Bitters—they helped me—I continued their use, and am now nearly a well man. I know of several similar cases.

Respectfully yours,
REV. J. S. CATHORN."

S-T-1860-X.

Intelligent persons and physicians can judge of the efficacy of the Plantation Bitters from the following partial formula.

CASCARILLA BARK

was known and used in Germany for Dyspepsia, Chronic Diarrhœa, Colic, Dysentery, and diseases of the Stomach and Bowels as early as 1690.

DANDELION,

for Inflammations of the Loins and Spleen in Dropsical Affections and Billiary Secretions, or Obstructions of the Abdominal Viscera.

CALISAYA, OR KING'S BARK,

was unknown to civilization until the middle of the 17th century. Humboldt makes favorable mention of the febrifuge qualities of this article as an Antidote to Fever and Ague, Intermittent and Malarious Fevers, in his extensive South American travels. The countess, wife of the Viceroy of Peru, having experienced the beneficial effects of this Bark, sent it to Europe in 1640. It was sold by the Jesuits for the enormous sum of its own weight in silver, and was thus called Jesuits' Powders. In 1658, Sir John Talbot employed it with great success in France, in the treatment of Fever and Ague, Dyspepsia, Nervous Affections, Loss of Appetite, Weakness and Debility, Palpitation of the Heart, Diarrhœa, &c., under the name of English Powders and in 1679, he sold the secret of its origin to Louis XIV, by whom it was divulged. It is now a standard remedy in all Pharmacopœia, and is employed in preparing the Plantation Bitters.

Chamomile Flowers, for enfeebled digestion; Wintergreen, valuable for Scrofula, Rheumatism and Nefratic Affections; Lavender Flowers, aromatic, stimulant and tonic, highly invigorating in Nervous Debility; Anise, an aromatic carminative, creating flesh, muscle and milk. Much used in nursing.

S-T-1860-X.

Another ingredient of remarkable and wonderful virtue used in the preparation of these Bitters, is a native of Brazil, and as yet unknown to the commerce of the world. A Spanish writer says:

* * * * "administered with St. Croix Rum, never fails to relieve nervous tremor, wakefulness, disturbed sleep, &c., and that it is used with great effect by the Brazilians, Spanish and Peruvian Ladies to heighten their color and beauty. It imparts cheerfulness to the disposition, vigor to the appetite and brilliancy to the complexion."

We withhold its name from the public for the present.

To the above are added Clove Buds, Orange, Carraway, Coriander, Snake Root, &c., all preserved in perfectly pure

ST. CROIX RUM.

The tonic properties of St. Croix Rum, and its powerful invigorating effects, have been long known to the physicians of the world.

Billious, Intermittent and Chill Fevers, engendered by the change of water and diet of travelers, particularly upon western rivers, are prevented and cured by the Plantation Bitters. They are also reliable to prevent sea sickness.

WHAT OTHERS SAY.

"Philadelphia, 1st month, 16th day, 1862.

Esteemed Friend.—Wilt thou send me another dozen of thy Bitters? Nothing has proven so beneficial to my invalid wife or myself, as the Plantation Bit

Thy friend,
ISAAC HOWLAND."

N. B.—The secret of the immense sale of the Plantation Bitters, is their guaranteed purity. The St. Croix Rum, and every article used, is warranted perfectly pure, and the money will be returned if not as represented.

The Plantation Bitters are put up in unique quart bottles, and sold by all respectable Druggists, Grocers, Hotels and Restaurants throughout the world. Be particular that every bottle bears the fac-simile of the Proprietor's signature.

THE GREAT SALE!

McKey & Bro's
MAMMOTH STOCK
HAS COMMENCED.

THE Largest Stock ever offered in Wisconsin can now be inspected at their store.

A GREAT TRIUMPH

has recently been achieved by

THE UNION ARMY,

the importance of which to the whole country is admitted by every loyal man. A great Triumph has also been achieved by

McKEY & BRO.

the results of which are not without their importance to the whole people of Wisconsin, as they must admit upon Inspecting our enormous stock, and learning the prices. Five months ago, foreseeing the tremendous advance which has since taken place in the price of

DOMESTIC GOODS,

and believing in the old proverb that "Delays are Dangerous," we took "Time" by the forelock and brought our immense

CASH RESOURCES

to bear on a depreciated market, and as we had lived and prospered amongst the people of Wisconsin, we resolved that they should have the benefit of our long experience and large Cash Capital. We therefore purchased in May and June last over

$100,000 Worth of Domestic Goods,

consisting of 300 bales and cases of Fine Medium and Heavy Bleached and Unbleached Sheetings and Shirting, in all the popular widths and makes,

100 cases Merrimac, Cocheco, American, Sprague and other celebrated brands of Fast Color Calicoes, printed in advance for this fall's trade,

50 cases Cotton Flannel, bleached and unbleached, long thick nap, and made on the heaviest drilling.

30 cases and bales of Denims, in the well known Amoskeag, Hay Maker, Mount Vernon and other superior makes.

25 cases and bales of Shirting Stripes, the heaviest and most durable, such as Amoskeag, York, Westbrook, &c.

20 cases Gingham, in Beverly Lancaster and other heavy and fast color makes.

300 bales of Batting, low, medium and Fine.

We have a Monster stock of Flannels of every make, color, quality and width. All our White Flannels are of the highly prized make of Samuel Gilbert, Andover, Mass. They are warranted pure wool and sulphur, stove dried which imparts to them their well known medicinal qualities, and makes them sought after by every New England housewife.

Bargains for Cash.

We shall sell a good Madder Print for 10c. A full Madder Print for one shilling, and all our best and choicest styles for 15c.

We shall sell a good unbleached Factory for one shilling, and a good bleached Factory for the same price.

Choice printed and plain DeLaines, worth 20c, at one shilling. If asked how we can afford to do so, we answer "cash" does it.

So much for our Domestic Goods, which have been laid in at a cost of fifty cents on the dollar of what other merchants have since been obliged to pay for them.

We have just received 20 cases of new and choice styles of Hamilton, Manchester and Pacific DeLaines, which we shall sell at Cost.

Also 25 pieces of Middlesex, all wool, pressed Flannels, in choice shades, and which we offer at the old price is full and complete, and was bought when prices were at the bottom before the tremendous advance in exchange took place.

We have now on hand a magnificent stock of

DRESS GOODS,

consisting of Double Twilled all wool Merinos, printed and plain; English Merinos, printed and plain; French and English Repps and Velours, printed and plain; Tasmania Cloths, Ottomans, Palestrine, Garibaldis, &c. Also 200 pieces all wool and Union Plaid Merinos.

SHAWLS AND CLOAKS.

We have over 3,000 superior all wool heavy Blanket Shawls—bought cheap, and which we shall sell cheap.

Our Cloak stock is replete with all the New and Desirable styles.

MILLINERY GOODS.

We are now opening our usual fall and winter stock of French Millinery Goods, which will be found to contain all the new and fashionable styles.

In Boots, Shoes and Rubbers

we are largely and well assorted.

Our Clothing Store

will be found to contain every thing that is new, elegant and economical, consisting of

Coats, Vests and Pants,

got up under the supervision of our own experienced cutter, together with a fine assortment of

HATS, CAPS, CLOTHS, CASSIMERES, VESTINGS, &c., &c.

In conclusion we would advise the public not to be attracted by those who show false colors or get up "clap trap" advertisements, but to come at once and inspect our stock, which is larger than all other stocks in Janesville put together, and which will be sold at less than present New York nett cash prices, at the store of McKEY & BRO.

New York Cash Store!

October 28th, 1862.

THE LARGEST, CHEAPEST & MOST EXTENSIVE
MERCANTILE ESTABLISHMENT
in the interior of Wisconsin.

SMITH & BOSTWICK
PROPRIETORS.

All kinds of Merchandise on Sale by the

Piece, Package or Case

Also, at Retail, at from Fifteen to Twenty per cent Less than the present price of the Manufacturers.

The Fall and Winter Campaign
is now
Fully Opened.

THE NEW YORK CASH STORE
has got
The Lead
and is
BOUND TO KEEP IT.

There is no Stock of Goods in Janesville that can Stop It.

WE have now in our Three Stores the largest stock of all kinds of Merchandise to be found in the interior of Wisconsin, particularly of

STAPLE GOODS.

Our entire stock of Staple Goods were bought in July and August, for cash, before the great rise in all kinds of Cotton Goods, and we are selling them from

Fifteen to Twenty per cent Less than the manufacturers are by the 50 cases. We are in receipt every week of the manufacturers' prices of all the cotton goods made in the United States, which is open to the public for examination at our stores at all times, so that our customers can see for themselves whether what we say is so or not.

We shall for the next thirty day sell our entire stock of

Domestic Goods,

consisting of Prints, Brown and Bleached Sheetings, Denims, Stripes, Ticks, Checks, Brown and Bleached Cotton Flannels, Bags, Batting and our entire Domestic stock at least twenty per cent less than the present prices of the manufacturers.

Our stock of Foreign

is twice as large as it ever was before, and much the largest stock in the city. All bought before the great rise in foreign exchange, consequently will be sold at less prices than we could by the same goods for at the present time in New York.

LADIES' CLOAKS.

The largest stock of these goods to be found in the state just received, and selling full as cheap as last year.—Also a very large assortment of

of all kinds, from the lowest price wool shawl, to the best Brocha made.

LADIES' FURS!

Three thousand dollars worth of these goods just received. In these goods we know no competition—having bought our entire stock direct from the importers and manufacturers, saving two or three jobbers' profits. We are selling Ladies' Furs less than merchants pay for them who buy in a small way. We have much the largest stock in Janesville, and will sell them from 25 to 50 per cent less than any house in this city. We mean exactly what we say.

Ladies' Hoods, Nubias, Skating Caps,

&c. These goods we are selling cheaper than we did last year, or any other year, so that our customers cannot say but there is one thing they can buy as cheap this year as they ever did. We are just in receipt of

of the above goods, direct from a New England manufacturer, to whom we gave our order some two months since, and were made at least thirty per cent less than we could buy the goods for now. We are selling the same quality of Hoods for one dollar, that we sold last year at twelve shillings. We have also a few beautiful trimmed with fur, to be found in no other place in Janesville.

SILK PLUSH HOODS,

Merchant Tailoring Department.

Our Cloth Room now contains much the largest stock of good

CLOTHS,
CASSIMERES,
and
FURNISHING GOODS,

to be found in this city, and as good as can be found in any city in this country, from which we are,

MANUFACTURING ALL KINDS of GARMENT

in as good style as can be obtained in Broadway or elsewhere. Persons wanting fine clothing need not go away for it, as we will satisfy them that it can be done here as well as elsewhere.

and
HAT AND CAP STORE.

This branch of our business having increased to a very large trade, we are running a store separate from our main store, which is three doors below, on Main street, where we have the largest stock of

and

to be found in any establishment in this city.

Particular attention is called to our immense stock of

Mens' & Boys' Hats & Caps

of all qualities and prices. In these goods we shall not attempt to enumerate our stock, as that would be an impossibility. We buy all our Hats and Caps by the case from the manufacturers, and we will guarantee to sell these particular goods

Twenty-Five per cent Cheaper

than they can be bought at any other house in this city. Persons living within one hundred miles of Janesville, will make money by coming here to buy their goods; and when you get here, be sure and come to the

before you buy your goods.

Singer's Letter A Machine,

IS the best Machine in the word for Family Sewing and Light Manufacturing purposes; Price, (with Hemmer,) and beautifully ornamented,

FIFTY DOLLARS.

The Nos. 1 and 2 machines are of great capacity and application for manufacturing purposes.

Our No. 3 machines are especially adapted to all kinds of light and heavy

in Carriage Trimming, Boot and Shoe Making, Harness Making, etc, etc. They are of extra size, with an arm long enough to take under it and stitch the largest sized dashes. There is scarcely any part of a Trimmers' stitching that cannot be better done with them than by hand; so, too, the saving of time and labor is very great. The table under these machines is 24 inches long, and the shuttle will hold six times the usual quantity of thread. The large machines work as fast as small ones.

We would ask for our Letter A machines, the special attention of Vest Makers and Dress Makers, and all those who want machines for Light Manufacturing purposes. They embody the principles of the standard machines, making like them, the interlock stitch, and are destined to be as celebrated for Family Sewing and light manufacturing purposes as our standard machines are for manufacturing purposes in general.

We have always on hand

Hemming Guages, Silk Twist, Linen and Cotton Thread on Spools, Best Machine Oil in Bottles, etc., etc.

We manufacture our own Needles, and would warn all persons using our machines not to buy any others. We know that there are needles sold of the most inferior quality, at higher prices than we charge for the best. The needles sold by us are manufactured especially for our machines. A bad needle may render the best machine almost useless.

Our customers may rest assured that all our Branch Offices are furnished with the

GENUINE ARTICLE.

In case of small purchases, the money may be sent in postage stamps or bank notes.

☞ Correspondents will please write their names distinctly. It is all important that we should in each case know the post office, county and state.

☞ All persons requiring information about Sewing Machines, their size, prices, working capacities, and the best methods of purchasing, can obtain it by sending to us, or any of our Branch Offices for a copy of

I. M. SINGER & CO.'S GAZETTE,

which is a beautifully illustrated Pictorial Paper. It will be sent Gratis

We have made the above Reduction in Prices with the two-fold view of benefiting the public and ourselves. The public have been swindled by spurious machines made in imitation of ours. The metal in them, from the iron casting to the smallest piece, is of poor quality. Their makers have not the means to do their work well. They are hid away in secret places, where it would be impossible to have at their command the proper mechanical appliances. It is only by doing a great business, and having extensive manufacturing establishments, that good machines can be made at moderate prices. The best designed machines, Badly Made, are always liable to get out of order, and are sure to cost considerable trouble and money to keep them in repair.

The qualities to be looked for in a machine are: certainty of correct action at all rates of speed, simplicity of construction, great durability and rapidity of operation, with the least labor. Machines to combine these essential qualities, must be made of the best metal and finished to perfection. We have the ways and means, on a grand scale, to do this.

The purchasers of machines, whose daily bread it may concern, will find that those having the above qualities not only work well at rapid as well as slow rates of speed, but last long in the finest possible working order. Our machines, as made by us, will earn more money with less labor than any others, whether in imitation of ours or not. In fact, they are cheaper than any other machine as a gift.

DR. J BOVEE DODS'

IMPERIAL WINE

BITTERS,

ARE made from a pure and unadulterated Wine, which is about double the usual strength of other Wines, and is imported by only one house in the United States. Also, from the following valuable Roots, Herbs &c., viz: Solomon's Seal, Spikenard, Camomile Flowers, Gentian, Wild Cherry Tree Bark, and Bayberry.

WE CHALLENGE

to produce

THEIR EQUAL!

We do not profess to have discovered some Roots "known only to the Indians of South America," and a cure for "all diseases which flesh is heir to," but we claim to present to the public a truly valuable preparation, which every intelligent Physician in the country will approve of and recommend. As a remedy for

INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION,

Weak Lungs, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Diseases of the Nervous System, Paralysis, Piles, Diseases peculiar to Females, Debility, and all cases requiring a Tonic, they are

UNSURPASSED!

For Sore Throat, so common among the Clergy, they are truly valuable.

For the aged and infirm, or for persons of a weak constitution—for Ministers of the Gospel, Lawyers, and all public speakers—for Book-Keepers, Tailors Seamstresses, Students, Artists, and all persons leading a sedentary life, they will prove truly beneficial.

As a Beverage, they are wholesome, innocent, and delicious to the taste. They produce all the exhilarating effects of Brandy or Wine, without intoxicating; and are a valuable remedy for persons addicted to excessive use of strong drink, and wish to refrain from it. They are pure and entirely free from the poison contained in the adulterated Wines and Liquors with which the country is flooded.

These Bitters not only CURE, but PREVENT Disease, and should be used by all who live in a country where the water is bad, or where Chills and Fevers are prevalent. Being entirely innocent and harmless, they may be given freely to Children and Infants with impunity.

Physicians, Clergymen and temperance advocates, as an act of humanity, should assist in spreading these truly valuable BITTERS over the land, and thereby essentially aid in banishing Drunkenness and Disease.

STATE OF WISCONSIN, ROCK COUNTY—ss.

OFFICE OF THE CLERK OF THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS.

NOTICE is hereby given that the following described lands and lots situate in the county of Rock and state of Wisconsin, were sold on Tuesday the twelfth day of June, A D 1860, (the same being the second Tuesday of said month) for the taxes, costs and charges due thereon for the year 1859, and that the same is still unredeemed. Now, therefore, unless the said lands and lots shall be redeemed from such sale on or before the twelfth day of June, A D 1863, (being three years from the date of the several certificates of sale of said lands,) the same or such parcels thereof as shall remain unredeemed at the date last aforesaid, will be forfeited and conveyed to the purchaser thereof. The amounts stated below include the taxes, charges and interests calculated to the last day of redemption.

GREAT REDUCTION

SINGER & CO.'S

STANDARD MACHINES

Well known to be the best for

Manufacturing Purposes:

No. 1, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $90,

Reduced to $70.

No. 2, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $100,

Reduced to $70.

Singer's Letter A Machine,

IS the best Machine in the word for Family Sewing and Light Manufacturing purposes; Price, (with Hemmer,) and beautifully ornamented,

FIFTY DOLLARS.

The Nos. 1 and 2 machines are of great capacity and application for manufacturing purposes.

Our No. 3 machines are especially adapted to all kinds of light and heavy

LEATHER WORK,

In Carriage Trimming, Boot and Shoe Making, Harness Making, etc., etc. They are of extra size, with an arm long enough to take under it and stitch the largest sized dashes. There is scarcely any part of a Trimmers' stitching that cannot be better done with them than by hand; so, too, the saving of time and labor is very great. The table under these machines is 24 inches long, and the shuttle will hold six times the usual quantity of thread. The large machines work as fast as small ones.

We would ask for our Letter A machines, the special attention of Vest Makers and Dress Makers, and all those who want machines for Light Manufacturing purposes. They embody the principles of the standard machines, making like them, the interlock stitch, and are destined to be as celebrated for Family Sewing and light manufacturing purposes as our standard machines are for manufacturing purposes in general.

We have always on hand

Hemming Guages, Silk Twist, Linen and Cotton Thread on Spools, Best Machine Oil in Bottles, etc., etc.

We manufacture our own Needles, and would warn all persons using our machines not to buy any others. We know that there are needles sold of the most inferior quality, at higher prices than we charge for the best. The needles sold by us are manufactured especially for our machines. A bad needle may render the best machine almost useless.

Our customers may rest assured that all our Branch Offices are furnished with the

GENUINE ARTICLE.

In case of small purchases, the money may be sent in postage stamps or bank notes.

☞ Correspondents will please write their names distinctly. It is all important that we should in each case know the post office, county and state.

☞ All persons requiring information about Sewing Machines, their size, prices, working capacities, and the best methods of purchasing, can obtain it by sending to us, or any of our Branch Offices for a copy of

I. M. SINGER & CO.'S GAZETTE,

which is a beautifully illustrated Pictorial Paper. It will be sent Gratis

We have made the above Reduction in Prices with the two-fold view of benefiting the public and ourselves. The public have been swindled by spurious machines made in imitation of ours. The metal in them, from the iron casting to the smallest piece, is of poor quality. Their makers have not the means to do their work well. They are hid away in secret places, where it would be impossible to have at their command the proper mechanical appliances. It is only by doing a great business, and having extensive manufacturing establishments, that good machines can be made at moderate prices. The best designed machines, Badly Made, are always liable to get out of order, and are sure to cost considerable trouble and money to keep them in repair.

The qualities to be looked for in a machine are: certainty of correct action at all rates of speed, simplicity of construction, great durability and rapidity of operation, with the least labor. Machines to combine these essential qualities, must be made of the best metal and finished to perfection. We have the ways and means, on a grand scale, to do this.

The purchasers of machines, whose daily bread it may concern, will find that those having the above qualities not only work well at rapid as well as slow rates of speed, but last long in the finest possible working order. Our machines, as made by us, will earn more money with less labor than any others, whether in imitation of ours or not. In fact, they are cheaper than any other machine as a gift.

IMPERIAL WINE

BITTERS,

ARE made from a pure and unadulterated Wine, which is about double the usual strength of other Wines, and is imported by only one house in the United States. Also, from the following valuable Roots, Herbs &c., viz: Solomon's Seal, Spikenard, Camomile Flowers, Gentian, Wild Cherry Tree Bark, and Bayberry.

to produce

THEIR EQUAL!

We do not profess to have discovered some Roots "known only to the Indians of South America," and a cure for "all diseases which flesh is heir to," but we claim to present to the public a truly valuable preparation, which every intelligent Physician in the country will approve of and recommend. As a remedy for

INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION,

Weak Lungs, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Diseases of the Nervous System, Paralysis, Piles, Diseases peculiar to Females, Debility, and all cases requiring a Tonic, they are

UNSURPASSED!

For Sore Throat, so common among the Clergy, they are truly valuable.

For the aged and infirm, or for persons of a weak constitution—for Ministers of the Gospel, Lawyers, and all public speakers—for Book-Keepers, Tailors Seamstresses, Students, Artists, and all persons leading a sedentary life, they will prove truly beneficial.

As a Beverage, they are wholesome, innocent, and delicious to the taste. They produce all the exhilirating effects of Brandy or Wine, without intoxicating; and are a valuable remedy for persons addicted to excessive use of strong drink, and wish to refrain from it. They are pure and entirely free from the poison contained in the adulterated Wines and Liquors with which the country is flooded.

These Bitters not only CURE, but PREVENT Disease, and should be used by all who live in a country where the water is bad, or where Chills and Fevers are prevalent. Being entirely innocent and harmless, they may be given freely to Children and Infants with impunity.

Physicians, Clergymen and temperance advocates, as an act of humanity, should assist in spreading these truly valuable BITTERS over the land, and thereby essentially aid in banishing Drunkenness and Disease.
